A Word from the Founder...

Pastor Christopher W. Brooks

Welcome to the Detroit Bible Institute!

On behalf of the faculty and staff, I want you to know that we are thrilled that you have chosen to study with us. We exist to help you develop into a world-impacting Christian leader by providing a biblical, theological and ministerial education that is high-quality, affordable and accessible.

The Detroit Bible Institute was established more than twelve years ago and since that time we have taught more than a thousand students. Our students come from a variety of churches and backgrounds. Many either currently hold or are preparing for leadership positions in their churches and come to be more fully equipped for ministry. Others enroll at the Detroit Bible Institute because they desire to better understand and defend their Christian faith in the context of their daily lives. While our students range in age, come from different backgrounds, and enroll for a variety of purposes, their desire is the same: to receive a quality Christian education in order to more greatly impact the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The 2018-2019 school year is an exciting time to be a student at the Detroit Bible Institute. As one of the largest bible institutes in the state, we fulfill our mission by offering our students the best education available at the most affordable price. Our quality faculty composed of seasoned pastors and seminary-trained professors are gifted and knowledgeable in their fields of study. We serve our students through our Foundational Biblical Studies Program, our Advanced Biblical Studies Program and DBI On-line. For those desiring to go further in their educational pursuits, we are in partnership with Grace College and Theological Seminary and our graduates receive 15 credits towards their associates or bachelors degree.

There has never been a better time to enroll in the Detroit Bible Institute. We look forward to getting to know you and helping you become the fully-equipped, world-impacting leader that you are called to be.

Note about the Catalog

While every effort is made to provide accurate and current information within the academic catalog and web site, the Detroit Bible Institute reserves the right to change, without notice, statements in the catalog concerning rules, policies, fees, curricula, courses, or other matters.

Changes to an academic catalog that are necessary following the start of the fall semester will be noted as an addendum to the original catalog.

It is students' responsibility to schedule a meeting with Detroit Bible Institute advisory staff and to be knowledgeable about institutional requirements, academic regulations, and calendar deadlines specified in the catalog.

FOUNDATIONAL BIBLICAL STUDIES

Program Objective: To develop Christian leaders by equipping them with a foundational biblical, theological and ministerial education.

SEVEN CORE COURSES & ONE ELECTIVE

- Old Testament Survey
- New Testament Survey
- Church History I
- Inductive Bible Study
- Counseling: Self-Confrontation
- Essential Christian Doctrines
- Apologetics: Classical Issues
- Elective Course (see page 10)

The Foundational Biblical Studies Program requires the successful completion of seven core courses and one elective course taken from the Advanced course offerings (see following page). Each course consists of twenty-four hours of classroom instruction. Courses meet once a week on Tuesdays for two hours for the duration of twelve weeks. If a course date falls on a holiday then that course will meet eleven times and the last four classes will meet from 7:00 P.M. TO 9:30 P.M to complete the twenty-four hours of classroom instruction. When classes are canceled due to weather or for a special situation students will be notified regarding class make up dates.

PROGRAM TRANSITIONAL INFORMATION

Students who registered into the DBI Biblical Studies Program prior to the start of the 2009 / 2010 school year (July 1, 2009—June 30, 2010) and have completed at least 5 core courses will have the same course requirements to complete as in the original outlined program. Students who registered prior to the start of the 2009 / 2010 school year and have less than 5 core courses completed will abide by the new program guidelines listed above in the Foundational Biblical Studies Program. For additional clarification please consult the DBI administration team.

ADVANCED BIBLICAL STUDIES

Program Objective: To further develop Christian leaders who have completed the Foundational Biblical Studies Program (or an approved equivalent) by equipping them with a more advanced biblical, theological and ministerial education.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Detroit Bible Institute exists to develop world-impacting Christian leaders through biblical, theological and ministerial training that is high-quality, affordable and accessible.

CREDIT FOR PREVIOUS EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Decisions regarding credit for previous education and training are made by the Executive Director. Students who have successfully completed courses under the instruction of Evangel Ministries will be granted credit for the equivalent DBI class. New students who have completed the equivalent course work of the Foundational Biblical Studies Program through another ministry training school may enroll directly into the Advanced Biblical Studies Program if approved by the Executive Director. New students interested in this advanced standing must first submit all pertinent transcripts to the Executive Director who will review them and make a decision.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

There are no academic requirements for admission. All are encouraged to apply. Application can be picked up from the DBI office. Once enrolled a student will be continuously enrolled and eligible to take classes.

The member must be in good standing, have met all of the requirements to become a member of Evangel Ministries and must provide evidence of financial hardship.

EQUIPMENT TO BE FURNISHED BY STUDENT AND SCHOOL

No equipment is required for any of the classes by the student except for their own basic school supplies and books. DBI will provide all equipment/furniture consistent with a learning environment. Such items may include: chairs, tables or desks, boards, projectors and the like.

A STUDENT WISHING TO WITHDRAW FROM THE DETROIT BIBLE INSTITUTE

MUST:

Submit a written notice to the Administrative Director, who also acts as Registrar. Stated below is our withdrawal and refund policy.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY:

“All tuition and fees paid by applicant shall be refunded if the applicant is rejected by the school before enrollment. An application fee of not more than $35.00 may be retained by the school if the application is denied. All tuition and fees paid by the applicant shall be refunded if requested within three business days after signing a contract with the school. All refunds shall be returned within 30 days.”

If an applicant withdraws later than the third business day after signing the contract, the following policy becomes effective.

- Before classes start, student will receive a refund of tuition paid only. The registration fee is the only fee that will be retained. There will be no other fees student has to pay.
- After classes start and before the end of the second class, the withdrawing student will receive a prorated refund of the tuition amount paid only.
- If after second class the student will not receive a refund and is responsible for any balance due on their account.
- The proration Example: For 1 course the Tuition is $100. That $100 would be divided by 12 classes to get 8.333 per class. This amount times the number of classes attended or passed since registering is the amount that will be subtracted from amount paid and the balance will be refunded for those students that withdrew no later than the end of second class school day.
- There is no refund the day after second class has ended.
