

THE HEART WITH CONTENTMENT PSALM 131

Introduction:

David shares with us one of the secrets of his successful life—he developed a contented heart. He learned how to rest in the Lord.

These words could truly have been sung by the greater Son of David. He demonstrated a life that possessed a heart with contentment. There are not many examples of this kind of heart in our world. We are the people with restless hearts, always driven for something more.

Learn from David.
