

THE FINAL CONCERT

PSALM 150

Introduction:

The last word will be hallelujah! In the end of all things there will be only one passion in the heart of humankind—a passion to praise the Lord.

Psalm 149 prophesied the submission of all things to His rule—this results in a universal hallelujah to the Lord God. This is the exact pattern that we find in Revelation. This is where history is headed—it is headed for a final concert in which all will acknowledge the Lord God in his glory and greatness.

This Psalm is both a declaration of our present duty and a prophetic vision of the end of all things. While I have breath, I am to praise the Lord. When all is consummated according to the eternal plan of God, every voice in the universe will be lifted up in the praise of God.

I. PRAISE IN EVERY PLACE!

II. PRAISE FOR EVERYTHING!

III. PRAISE BY ALL MEANS!

IV. PRAISE BY ALL CREATURES!

Conclusion:

Surely we must consciously arrange our lives so that there is daily praise ascending to our God from our hearts through our lips and with our hands.
