David G. DeHart, CPA Principal - Audit

David is a Wright State University graduate (Summa Cum Laude 1981). He received his CPA in August of 1982 and joined the firm in 1986. Dave's expertise is in a wide range of services including nursing homes audits, and other health care providers, financial services firms and employee benefit plans to name just a few. Dave is also a registered "peer reviewer" having conducted several peer reviews of other CPA firms - due to his strong audit background.

He's well known in the Springfield area for his service to the Clark-Shawnee Local school board where he serves as a board member as well as his heavy involvement with the High school band functions.

What you might not know about Dave? He's a talented singer and piano player.
