Jackie McIntosh Office Manager

Jackie earned her undergraduate degree from Wright State University. She was a district manager for a financial outfit in the southern Ohio region before joining Duvall's as "temporary" help in 1990. Twenty years later, she wears many hats in the firm.

She is responsible for office management, assistant to the managing partner and acts as firm liaison with other firms, community representatives and basically organizing and keeping things running smoothly for the firm's employees

What you might not know about Jackie? She enjoys refinishing antiques, photography, and reading a good book poolside – aah can summer come soon enough?
