ELIM 201 - Elim 201 concluded a 4-part Sunday morning class, and was very well received by all who participated. We are offering it again as a one day class, for those who are unable to attend on Sunday mornings. The class addresses the topic of Growing To Spiritual Maturity, by developing the habits that will energize or renew our spiritual lives. The class will be offered on Saturday, March 2, 10am to 3pm, with lunch provided, and featuring a variety of Pastors in teaching roles. There will be a sign-up table in the Atrium for the next several weeks

ELIM 301 - This is a follow-up to Elim 201, but not exclusively for those who have completed 201. The purpose of the class is based on the premise that what God made me to be determines what He intends for me to do. In other words, God has shaped us for ministry. The class begins on Sunday, March 3, 9:00-10:00am, in room 4, and will run for 4 successive Sundays, with different Pastors leading the different sessions. There will be a sign-up table in the Atrium for the next several weeks.
