"The measure of intelligence is the ability to change" Albert Einstein.

Think about this...

"Jesus doesn't want any lukewarm followers. They don't have life in abundance like God wants to give us and they are a bad example even though most of them don't even know it. The problem is much more serious than we think. "Half-hearted Christians are worse than infidels; for their deceptive words and noncommittal position lead many astray." Personal Revival P.38
