

Lifestyle Commitment

Mission Statement

Escondido Adventist Academy's mission is to "educate the Head, the Hand, and the Heart." The faculty and staff at EAA endeavor to provide a Christ-centered environment, to offer a progressive curriculum, and to encourage the development of responsible citizens who serve in their local and global communities.

Preamble

In a cooperative atmosphere with supporting families and churches and the resources of a growing and culturally varied community, Escondido Adventist Academy promotes academic excellence, instills spiritual values, cultivates social skills and develops physical talents. Our purpose is to respond to the world's need for young men and women who are making intelligent choices based on eternal principals.

By attending Escondido Adventist Academy students have chosen to adopt a Christian lifestyle. Each student agrees to accept the moral responsibility associated with education in a Christ-centered school, whether on or off camps. EAA knowingly accepts and retains only those students who are willing to make this commitment. It is hoped that adherence to this commitment while at EAA will extend beyond the years spent here to become a lifetime commitment to the eternal principles of honor, integrity, and morality.

Definition

The word honor is defined as, "a keen sense of right and wrong; adherence to action or principles considered right; integrity." The word integrity is defined as, "the quality or state of being of sound moral principles; uprightness, honesty, and sincerity." The word moral is defined as, "capable of making the distinction between right and wrong in conduct."

Student Pledge

As a student of Escondido Adventist Academy, I recognize that every reasonable effort will be made to stimulate and inspire me to develop my unique potential. I pledge to support the administration's effort to provide a positive, safe and orderly environment by first, promising to read, become familiar with, and follow the policies outlined in the Student / Parent Handbook, and secondly, by choosing to be a student who, both on and off campus:

- ❖ Seeks to develop physical, mental, and spiritual energies to serve and honor God.
- ❖ Respects and protects the rights of all people.
- ❖ Practices principles of honesty, integrity, and morality.
- ❖ Refuses to use or support the use of tobacco, alcohol or illicit drugs.
- ❖ Endeavors to influence and assist fellow students in supporting these ideals.
