Our Year-Long Collection for Operation Christmas Child begins in January. We are asking that you help us again this year.. (Should we pack 200 Shoe-Boxes in November 2017 at our annual Packing Party?)

From Franklin Gram: "God has a wonderful ways of using shoebox gifts in the most unlikely ways. Two years ago he inspired a little girl name Faith Russell to challenge her Tennessee church to pack 300 boxes for Operation Christmas Child. Faith was born with spina bifida and doctors said that she would never walk. Boy, were they wrong.

Faith was featured in a NBC News video where she said that while she was proud to reach her goal, she really wanted 20,000 shoebox gifts. That's enough to fill two tractor-trailers. In fact, that's more boxes than Samaritan's Purse collected in the entire U.S. in our first year of Operation Christmas Child back in 1993.

Impossible? Not if you have faith. A manager at a local real estate company saw Faith's video and got the company involved. Others donated tons of school supplies, toothbrushes and various items. By the time the trucks arrived, Faith's team had packed 20,000 shoebox gifts.

Need boys and girls WOW (main) gifts
(dolls, trucks, purses, small balls)

Building Ministry Report for January

Our Goal	$ 5,772.00
Gifts Received	$25,949.79
Loan Balance	$169,843.00

In December we started out by saying "How Great is Our God". The answer "Really Great". This month God blessed a family to bless the congregation with a special $20,000.00 gift. As the church body we say Thank You! Besides the special gift we had a great month including a memorial given in the memory of Ashton Hendricks. We will make another special principle payment of $20,000.00 moving our balance down to $149,843.00. Watch our goal poster on the wall by the kitchen this year as we get down to $100,000.
