Music Ministry: A Treasure from God

"Next to the Word of God, the noble art of music is the greatest treasure in the world."

Martin Luther

Music Director: Eliseo Paniagua
eliseopaniagua@yahoo.com

Do you have a love for music? Are you interested in being a part of our Sunday services? Then consider joining one of our wonderful FOUMC music ministry programs (our rehearsal dates have changed; all rehearsals will be on Wednesdays instead of Thursdays).

The Chancel Choir is our premier vocal group that rehearses every Wednesday from 7:30 to 9 pm in the Sanctuary and our music selections vary every week. We have two concerts a year with other performance opportunities arising from time to time. No prior experience is needed; just a love to sing and a positive attitude!

Along with the Chancel Choir, FOUMC also has a Hand Chimes Choir. They rehearse every Wednesday from 6:30 - 7:20 pm in the Sanctuary. No experience is necessary; just an open mind and willingness to learn.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact our Music Director, Eliseo Paniagua, at eliseopaniagua@yahoo.com.

Day Change:
Weekly rehearsals will be on

Routines

“You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.”

Matthew 5: 13

When we are small children the excitement for the new school year to start is filled with jitter and anticipation. We are all anxious to get back to a regular routine. It seems when order is added to our life it allows us to be more disciplined with our tasks. Even as we age out of school, Fall often becomes a time of restart and recommitment, and goal setting. It is also a time to re-establish, or establish, for the first time, some routines to help us grow in our Christian faith.

It is one thing to say we believe in Jesus, it is another to live it out. It is one thing to give lip service, it is another to give hand and foot service. True commitment is visible when we show we have a heart for service, a heart which is filled with God's love poured out to the world around us. I've been blessed to see your commitment to Christ, and to one another. I am grateful for the role the church plays in your life and glad to see the commitment you have to sharing that with others.

So as we seek to find a routine for this fall, let's be sure it includes faith practices; let's be sure to spend time in worship each week; listen to God in prayer and scripture as we seek his guidance for our lives. Let us not isolate ourselves, but connect and interact with other believers around us. Finally, let us look for ways we can serve the community in which we live on a weekly basis.

This is how we maintain, or recover, our saltiness. Let us seek to become the people God has called us to be by practicing the primary ways God has given us to become the salt of the earth.

Peace and Blessings,

Pastor Kimberly Montenegro

Come Meet our Pastor!

We are scheduling Meet & Greets after Sunday worship services for small groups to get to know Pastor Kim and for her to get to know us. Contact the Church Office (916-961-6631) to sign up for a spot on September 16, 23, or 30. All Meet & Greets will take place in Spencer.

Congratulations!

Proud great-grandparents, Roy and Gay Anderson, are pleased to share the educational milestones of their great-granddaughters:

- ✧ Hannah Butz, age 17, attending Humboldt University
- ✧ Saffron Leong, age 15, attending Sacramento State University

Congratulations to both of these accomplished young women!

Thank You!

From Mary McCollum:

My heartfelt thanks for your expressions of concern over my recent heart challenges. Three ambulance trips and three stents to blood vessels nourishing the heart has me feeling better than before. At the follow up appointment the doctor told me I was 99% primed for a fatal heart attack. I feel much better now but am cautious as you might imagine. I figure I'm on borrowed time and that God is not finished with me yet.

From Dedra Beauchamp:

Thank you to Sheri Johnson, Diane Sommer, and others who covered my desk at various times over the summer so I could spend time with family.

From Karlene Brown:

Thank you to all for the generous contributions of the school supplies in July. Downtown Ministries were so pleased to especially get supplies for high schoolers. Our next project will be to give them coats and jackets....all sizes...children and adults. Gently used and new accepted. Just need to be clean. This will be our October focus.

Off to College...

Sammie Lee Wilhoit

Champlain College, Burlington, Vermont

From Anne Wilhoit:

Sammie Lee moved into Rowell Hall at Champlain College on Thursday, August 23. She couldn't stop smiling the entire time we were in Burlington. She loves the town, which is beautifully situated on a hill with Lake Champlain at the bottom. Champlain College is about halfway down the hill and from most of the buildings, has a beautiful view of the lake. The town is mostly Victorian, so lots of brick around campus. Rowell Hall is a bit newer, having been built in 1905. It is Greek Revival, which irked her until she saw it in person. (She had been looking forward to living in a Victorian Mansion and thought Greek Revival would look like a Frat House. Attached is a pic and you can see that she loved it at first sight.) She is majoring in Computer Science and Innovation. Champlain has an "upside-down" curriculum, which means that she starts classes in her major this semester.

Health-wise she is doing very well. She had Botox at Stanford the week before she left and has already had an appointment with a neurologist from the Headache Clinic at University of Vermont Medical Center. He will perform Botox again in Nov. She will still have the occasional headache, but those she can usually handle with medication and a dark room for an hour or so.

Some of you had asked for her info:

Sammie Lee Wilhoit

Champlain College

375 Maple Street

Burlington, VT 05401

broadwaymusicalgirl@hotmail.com

(Yes, all students have the same address. From what I can tell, when you go to the mail room they just have things sorted by last name.)

Thanks again for being Sammie Lee-supporters, Anne

NEVER STOP LEARNING

Coming Soon! Autumn Book Study By Kathy Glass

Get your reading glasses ready! A new book study is being planned for this autumn. Several books are being examined, so the title is not yet ready. Set some time in your schedule, and details will follow. Watch the Sunday bulletin, slide show, and get ready for the announcement coming in the early part of September!

Adult Bible Study by Loren Guffey

Join us on Sunday mornings at 9 am in the Library.

Home Study Guides available on the Narthex Bulletin Board.

For the next several weeks we will be getting acquainted with God through the scriptures. Remember when God confronted Moses in the wilderness? He didn't answer Moses' question by saying, "I am whoever you want me to be." He said, "I am who I am." So instead of imagining God to fit our dreams let us see if the scriptures can inject some realism into our imaginings. We will begin by reading about the God of Creation. We will be reading about an omnipotent God.

We mortals tend to make God an image of ourselves. We can't help ourselves. We assign personalities to Him.

Wouldn't it be better if we tried to discern who God is? Shouldn't we check our imaginations against the scriptures?

"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." (Genesis 1:27.) So we were made in the image of God, not the other way around. May we be Holy Spirit indwelt and guided in our study.

Now there are 2 ways to be a Jiffy Fixer!

Mondays at 9 am

Morning Jiffy Fixers is moving to Mondays!

Effective September 10, the Morning Jiffy Fixers will meet on Mondays. There will be no Morning Jiffy Fixers on August 27 or September 3. If Monday is a better day than Tuesday, come on out and help a while. We meet every Monday at 9:00 am to work on small, one-day projects to help reduce costs of hiring from the outside to get easier projects complete.

We have a new database!

By Dedra Beauchamp, Administrative Assistant

It was time to upgrade the database that we use to track attendance, giving, and contact information. Sheri Johnson did the research and picked a good one that we began using this year. There is definitely a learning curve for me when working with any database. As I begin using the new database to generate directories, mailing lists, emailing the newsletter, etc., please report any mistakes, corrections, or updates to the Church Office. Also feedback about the look or layout of a directory or list is very much appreciated.

As part of the database upgrade, we are also trying to improve our group communications. We are creating 3 groups of people based on their communication preference: text message, phone call, or email. Please notify the Church Office which method you prefer for general group communications.

As always, thank you for your patience! The database is a work-in-progress and so am I!

Book Club

September's Book Club selection is We Never Asked for Wings by Vanessa Diffenbaugh.

From barnesandnoble.com: "For fourteen years, Letty Espinosa has worked three jobs around San Francisco to make ends meet while her mother raised her children—Alex, fifteen, and Luna, just six—in their tiny apartment on a forgotten spit of wetlands near the bay. But now Letty's parents are returning to Mexico, and Letty must step up and become a mother for the first time in her life. Navigating this new terrain is challenging for Letty, especially as Luna desperately misses her grandparents and Alex, who is falling in love with a classmate, is unwilling to give his mother a chance. Letty comes up with a plan to help the family escape the dangerous neighborhood and heartbreaking injustice that have marked their lives, but one wrong move could jeopardize everything she's worked for and her family's fragile hopes for the future."

Bring a sack lunch and join us on Monday, September 24 at noon in the library.

Upcoming selections:

The Daily Coyote by Shreve Stockton; Hillbilly Elegy by J.D. Vance;

Take Me With You by Catherine Ryan Hyde; When Never Comes by Barbara Davis;

A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles; Never Stop Walking by Christine Rickardsson
