FAITH COVENANT
AN EVANGELICAL COVENANT CHURCH

SUNDAY, 11 NOVEMBER, 2012

Welcome To Faith!

2 Peter 1:5-7

"...make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love."

THE ORIGINS OF VETERANS DAY

In 1921, an unknown World War I American soldier was buried in Arlington National Cemetery. This site, on a hillside overlooking the Potomac River and the city of Washington, became the focal point of reverence for America's veterans. Similar ceremonies occurred earlier in England and France, where an unknown soldier was buried in each nation's highest place of honor. These memorial gestures all took place on November 11, giving universal recognition to the celebrated ending of World War I fighting at 11 a.m., November 11, 1918 (the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month). The day became known as "Armistice Day"....

Realizing that peace was equally preserved by veterans of WW II and Korea, Congress was requested to make this day an occasion to honor those who have served America in all wars. Thus, in 1954 President Eisenhower signed a bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day. Today we honor all our Vets and we thank them for fighting for our freedom and all the sacrifices they and their families made!

MISSIONS CORNER

OC International

For 60 years OC has been sending U.S. missionaries around the world to fan the flames of the gospel. Thanks to your prayers, support and your commitment to the gospel, Diane and I have the privilege of working to see another generation of missionaries called and sent. Romans 10:14 asks the question, "How can they hear without someone preaching to them?" You are the ones helping to answer that call as together we continue to serve the church around the world. Thank you Faith, for your wonderful support!

WORLD RELIEF SUNDAY

Sunday the 25th of November is our World Relief Sunday. On that Sunday you will have an opportunity to make a financial donation towards CWR.

If you are not familiar with Covenant World Relief (CWR), read on to know a little more: Those unfamiliar with CWR might think their main focus is disaster relief, but the majority of their time and resources are spent on long-term community development programs. Responding to disasters by providing food, water, medical care, and shelter is vital to saving lives and facilitating recovery. CWR has a long history of involvement in this important work and will continue to respond to disasters. However, when addressing extreme poverty and injustice, it is through long-term engagement in community development programs that individuals, families, and communities are truly transformed. Transformation is the change from existence contrary to God's purposes to life in full harmony with God and others.* Transformation is ultimately the work of God and all of us are in need of God's transforming work in our lives. Partnership is foundational to CWR. First, they recognize the vital importance of partnering with God, as God is the only one who can bring about true transformation. Without joining God, their work would be fruitless. Second, CWR partners with highly capable, time-tested, and trustworthy organizations, most of which are based locally and are a part of the local community. Finally, CWR partners with Covenant individuals and churches who give generously, pray, advocate, and serve. They are deeply grateful for our partnership because without the donations of Covenanters, CWR would not be able to carry out their mission to love, serve, and work together with the poor, the powerless, and the marginalized.
