Thank You

Dear Paul & Congregation,

I would like to share my appreciation for the words of kindness and help in my current situation, it fills my heart with peace and joy in the simple fact that I won't have to worry about food and eating while I go through these troubled times (recovery from surgery and loss of husband). It is very hard for me to ask for help since I've never needed it before. Just to know that you all helped me and my family brings a tear to my eyes. I can never explain how grateful I am. It truly means the world to me and builds my faith in human kindness. To all the members of the church— Thank you. I will never forget your generosity and I will be eternally grateful.

God Bless, Mrs. K. Jackson

MAKING A DIFFFERENCE—

As members of the Alcoholics Anonymous meeting who meet in your library twice a week, we thank you for allowing us to gather here.

When we first started our meeting several years ago, there were no AA meetings held in Farragut. Our group was very small at that time—so small that we considered giving up on the meeting. In time the group attracted new members until we now regularly have over twenty in attendance on Thursday evening and a smaller group now meets on Saturday mornings.

In our time at the Farragut Church of Christ, many new members have found sobriety through the group. Anyone familiar with the disease of alcoholism will know how miraculous it is for an alcoholic to find sobriety!

*Our Thursday evening group meets at 6:30 and is open to anyone who has a desire to stop drinking. *Our Saturday morning group meets at 8:30 and welcomes anyone with an interest in learning about AA. Please speak privately with Paul Phelps, to contact us.
