Thank You

Dear Friends,
Thank you so much for your generous donations of clothing to our annual Give-Away. We sincerely appreciate your efforts to help us reach out to the poor in our community with Christ's love. We sent out 20 Correspondent Courses and our men are calling on numerous families who have requested this through our Give-Away. This year again we are emphasizing children's clothing and winter coats. We never seem to have enough of these things. In Christ's love,
Madisonville Church of Christ

Dear Church Family,
Thanks you so much for the beautiful flowers and all the condolence cards. It was greatly appreciated during a difficult time. Rachel & Ian Driskill

We are truly appreciative of the outpouring of sympathy from this congregation for the death of Roger's father, Frank Dugan. While reunited with family there, we were reminded of our family here by the flowers that somehow found us in that little church 500 miles away. Dad was one of the "Greatest Generation" when he flew 50 missions in a B25 in WWII, earned a purple heart, lived a quiet life as a farmer in a small community, built and managed schools, and loved his family. He lived a good life of 98 years and we will miss him. Thank You,
Roger & Peggy Dugan
