LIVING THE STORY OF THE BIBLE
TO BECOME LIKE JESUS

SELF-CONTROL

I have the power through Christ to control myself.

Titus 2:11-13

Key Idea: I have the power through Christ to control myself.

Key Scripture: For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. <sup>12</sup> It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, <sup>13</sup> while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.
Titus 2:11-13

Self-control is a fruit of the Holy Spirit in Galatians 5:22-23. Self-control is defined as “physical and emotional self-mastery, particularly in situations of intense provocation or temptation.” Self-control is the mark of a wise person. As our key Scripture says “It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions.”

- But what characteristics mark a person with self-control? A person who exemplifies self-control is:
- A person with who learns “to control your own body in a way that is holy and honorable” (1 Thesalonians 4:4). A person with self-control does not put themselves in a position where they might be led astray. This is different for each individual. For one person, it might be reading certain books or seeing certain movies. For another person it might be staying away from friends who enjoy smoking or drinking. We need to honor ourselves and our bodies.
  - A person who has the mental discipline to keep their mind on the kingdom of heaven instead of earthly pursuits. In asking his readers to be holy, Peter tells them “with minds that are alert and fully sober, set your hope on the grace to be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed at his coming” (1 Peter 1:13).
  - A person who thinks before they speak. James 1:19 tells us “Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.” Thinking before you speak is very much tied into keeping our minds on Jesus. If you love your neighbor as yourself, then you are less likely to think negatively on something or someone and those negative thoughts will not be spoken out loud.
  - A person who restrains their reactions. A person with self-control is not easily angered or easily flustered. Eugene Peterson in his translation tells us "Smart people know how to hold their tongue; their grandeur is to forgive and forget." (Proverbs 19:11, The Message)
  - A person who knows how to manage their time. If you don't determine how you will spend your time, then others will decide for you: "Be very careful, then, how you live--not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil." (Ephesians 5:15-16, NIV)

Each of us has the opportunity to improve our self-control. But it takes more than just willpower for lasting self-control. It takes a power greater than yourself: "For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline." (2 Timothy 1:7, NIV)

Life Application:
I am able to control myself because Christ is in me.

Prayer:
Jesus, give me the power to live a life of self-control. Amen.
