HOPE

I can cope with the hardships of life because of the hope I have in Jesus Christ.

Hebrews 6:19-20a

Think

Believe: Hope

Key Idea: I can cope with the hardships of life because of the hope I have in Jesus Christ.

Key Scripture: We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf. Hebrews 6:19-20a

Biblical hope is not a hope-so but it is a know-so. It isn't wishing for the best. It isn't waiting to see what happens and hope that it turns out well. Hope is not a feeling or an emotion. Hope is the knowledge of facts. As our Key Scripture tells us "We have this hope as an anchor of the soul, firm and secure."

Just as an anchor restricts or holds firm a boat in a body of water, when the storms of life hit us, our hope anchors us firmly to Christ. We know that we can rely on the promises of God because God will never lie to us (Hebrews 6:18; Numbers 23:19) and God will never leave us (Deuteronomy 31:6).

In the book of Romans, the Apostle Paul writes to us of hope as well. He states in Chapter 8 that
For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

We do this because later on in that same chapter Paul tells us "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31). So we base our hope on the promises that God has already fulfilled, the work he is currently doing in our lives and know that with full assurance God will be with us every step of the way in the future.

We also know that our hope is assured because no matter what we are going through we know that our ultimate future home is assured because of Christ's resurrection. In conquering death, Christ also allows us to conquer death. To live eternally in his presence in our forever home. This is the hope of eternal life.

Faith and hope go hand in hand. Hebrews 11:1 tells us "Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see." Our hope is a hope that is like faith...a faith that cannot be moved by circumstances or what the eyes see because an unseen God is seen in His faithfulness. As our chapter in Believe stated "hope activates faith, faith deepens hope."

Our hope is anchored in Christ.

Life Application:

Hope anchors me to Christ so that when I encounter the hardships of life I am not tossed about.

Prayer:

Jesus, you are my anchor of hope. Keep me strong when life throws me a curve. Help me keep my eyes always on you; for you are my future and my everlasting hope. Amen.
