We desperately need your help in a special perishable food drive to replenish our pantries and refrigerators.

We have several local congregations suppling us with non-perishable supplies, such as canned foods, cleaning materials, cereals, flour, sugar, etc...

We are asking for a $15.00 donation from each family to purchase perishable foods such as milk, bread, fresh fruits and meats. Each group home feeds 8 teenage boys between the ages of 13-18 years old. Our Residential Counselors and School Staff cook 3 home cooked meals a day. Your attention to this request will be of great help in our continued effort to meet the needs of many children and youth in our care.

If you have any questions or concerns you may contact Loy Molchan, at 865-584-0841.

There will be a Bridal Shower on Sunday, September 6, at the building at 2:00PM for Meagan Mikles, bride elect of Micah House. Men are welcome. Micah will be here. They will register at Bed, Bath & Beyond, and Target.

From the Family of Carole O'Neal

It is so difficult to acknowledge all individual and layered church support received from the Farragut Family during Carole's lengthy illness; all the way through to her blessed time to "Fly Away". Even in death her friends and family were treated to a wonderful luncheon after the funeral service. Observing this, sometimes perfect stranger would inquire "What kind of church do you attend"? In my mind I always concluded a Wonderful Church. Carole and I, and our family will forever be grateful.
