Hi!

Perhaps you've heard the news. I will have a new position starting August 1. I'll be the Middle School ESL teacher at a missionary school here in Vienna. If you didn't get the newsletter and want to next time, then let me know. I'll add you to the list!

You may be wondering what that will mean for you as a financial supporter. The International Christian School of Vienna (ICSV) is a missionary school. The teachers raise funds to offer an affordable English-language, Christian education. The tuition is much lower than the other American based curriculum school in Vienna.

I want to thank you for your support to this point. I am happy to say that I have had such faithful financial supporters that I have been able to fully invest my time in Vienna Christian Center, not in making more financial partners. You have made that possible. Sometimes missionaries struggle to keep support, but you have stayed faithful.

Fortunately, Assemblies of God World Missions and ICSV will work together. Nothing will change on your end. I will still receive the support. It will still be tax-deductible. Take a look at the school's website to see what they're all about- the URL is on the bottom of this.

I am gearing up for the change. I am training others at VCC to take my responsibilities. I will still attend the church. So we are figuring out my contributions to the VCC family. It looks like I will be able to contribute some video editing and media elements. Then, as there is demand, I may offer an accent class. Teaching accent is one of my favorite things to do! VCC will be a big part of my life. I am thankful that I was able to work here and that I will still be part of such a healthy church. Thank you also for your thoughts, prayers, and communication. I love to receive Facebook messages, WhatsApp texts, and even some real snail-mail letters! I look forward to hearing from you again.

We're better together.

With love,

Monica
