

DR. SCOTT CAMP

Evangelist

Dr. Scott Camp has a unique blend of life experiences that give him a powerful relevant ministry to reach the unreachable with the message of Christ. He was the product of a teenage pregnancy, alcoholism, and a broken home. His own drug and alcohol abuse led to a felony charge and he was arrested while in high school. It was there that Scott committed his life to following Christ and shortly thereafter was called to preach. Dr. Camp has served in a variety of capacities since entering vocational ministry in 1982, including student pastor, evangelist, church planter, college professor, and Dean of Students. He has been the Sr. Pastor of four growing congregations which include First Baptist Church of Sachse, TX; Metro Church of Garland, TX; First Baptist Church of Mansfield, TX; and most recently, Fellowship of Joy in Grand Prairie, TX.

Dr. Camp now travels throughout the United States and West Africa preaching at churches, city-wide crusades, and conferences. He has been featured as a program guest with the Billy Graham Crusade.

Thousands have responded to the gospel under his ministry worldwide. He has ministered to international audiences in person as well as via television and radio broadcasts. His ministry has been covered in various newspaper magazine articles including the Dallas Morning News and Ft. Worth Star Telegram. He has also preached at numerous state evangelism/youth evangelism and pastor's conferences across the nation for various denominational and interdenominational groups.

Dr. Camp holds a Masters of Arts in Theology from Criswell College, graduating Summa-Cum Laude. In addition, he holds a Master of Divinity from Southwestern Assemblies of God University and a Master of Theology Degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. In 2007, he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity from St. Thomas Christian College in Jacksonville, FL. He is currently completing the Doctor of Ministry program at Assemblies of God Theological Seminary in Springfield, MO.

Scott married his wife, Gina in 1988 and they have four children: Sarah, Dillon, Joshua, and Madison. Gina has taught music, directed children's choirs and has also been a featured vocalist and worship leader at various conferences.
