CHILDREN’S CONNECTION
Trust

“I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.” Psalms 91:2
Remember when you were a little kid and you were jumping into the pool with floaties on. You couldn’t quite swim yet so jumping in was scary and you were scared. Then your daddy opens his arms and says “Jump, I will catch you.” All of the sudden, the fear goes away and the trust in your father comes. Then you jump into the deep water and into his arms.
In that same way we can trust our Heavenly Father with whatever happens even when it seems scary at first and doesn’t make sense. Our fear comes from what is in front of us and what we can see. The trust comes from what we cannot see, but know and believe. Jesus is someone we can trust. He is good and a safe place to run to. We can do what He is telling us because of the trust we have in Him just like we had in our daddy jumping into the deep water.
So next time something happens, remember that you can trust in Jesus and you don’t have to be scared.

“You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you.” Isaiah 26:3
Blessings!
Katherine
The beautiful flowers on the Communion Table, Sunday, May 14 were in honor of all First Baptist Church mothers.

The beautiful flowers on the Communion table Sunday, May 21, were in loving honor of our children, Josh Wilkerson, whose birthday is March 13, Maggie Ulmer, whose birthday is April 17, Mary Catherine Wilkerson, whose birthday is May 14, and Claire Ulmer, whose birthday is September 10, and were given by Billy and Leah Ulmer.

THANK YOU NOTES

Dear First Baptist Church,

I am extremely thankful that you are thinking of me during these important times. Please continue to pray for me as I focus on my exams.

Thanks again,

Laura Kate Nix

First Baptist Church Women on Mission,

Some people have kindness in their minds, others have kindness in their hearts. Some people think about being kind, other talk about being kind. But very few people like you do kind deeds.

On behalf of the Adams County Sheriff’s Office I would like to thank each of you for providing our agency with the delicious snacks. We appreciate everything that you do for our department.

Again, thank you.

Yours truly,

Travis Patten, Sheriff

Shannon Jex is a local artist and will be on hand to teach us how to draw and paint a church. We need to know in advance who will be in attendance so that we will have adequate canvases, brushes, etc. on hand. Sign-up sheets are available in the church office, the Family Life Center entrance and the Kick-start desk in the Fireside room.
