CHURCH COVENANT

Having accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior and, on profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, and having been received into the family of this Church, we do hereby covenant:

---- To honor God with our lives, seeking first his kingdom and his righteousness, supporting the total mission of our Church with our prayers, time, abilities and money.

---- To live as disciples, seeking ever to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

---- To attend and support the worship of this Church, its ordinances, discipline and doctrine.

---- To labor together in Christian fellowship, exercising brotherly love toward one another, praying for each other, being mindful of and sharing one another's joys, burdens and sorrows, and always being slow to take offense and eager for reconciliation.

---- To live as Christians in the world, being just in our dealings and faithful in our obligations.

---- To regard as of the household of faith all who worship Christ as Lord, and while holding to our Baptist convictions and heritage, seeking with all Christians a unity of spirit and purpose.

---- To live as Christians in our homes, engaging in family and individual devotions, teaching our children by instruction and example that Christ is Savior and Lord.

---- To endeavor by example and effort to win others to faith in and commitment to Christ.

---- To become active members of another church when circumstances require our separation from this one.

In summary, the Senior Minister with God’s help uses his/her talents to lead the Church in accomplishing its work.

Election of the Senior Minister shall take place at a meeting called for that purpose. The vote will be by secret ballot. At least one (1) week's notice shall be given to the congregation. A majority affirmative vote of those present and voting at the meeting shall constitute a Call. The relationship may be terminated by the Senior Minister’s resignation or by the majority either case, thirty (30) days notice of the termination shall be required.

ARTICLE III Additional Ministers

This Church shall call Additional Ministers as needed to meet the spiritual needs of the congregation and to assist the church in fulfilling its mission. The need for Additional Ministerial positions will be determined by the congregation in conjunction with the Coordinating Council, existing Ministerial Staff, the Personnel Ministry Team and the Diaconate. Additional Ministers shall be recommended to the Church by a special Search Committee nominated by the Nominating Ministry Team and elected by the Church.

The Additional Ministers shall be responsible to the Church for the activities in their respective areas, as they minister and work under the direction of the Senior Minister and in cooperation with Church Ministry Teams. Additional Ministers will serve as liaisons to ministry teams and committees as assigned. Prior to calling an Additional Minister, the candidate, the Senior Minister and the Personnel Ministry Team will review and agree upon the position description which shall be presented to the Church at the time of nomination of the candidate.

The election and termination procedures described for the Senior Minister also apply to all Additional Ministers. The vote on all Ministerial Staff will be by secret ballot.

ARTICLE IV Deacons

The duties of the Deacons shall be to minister in concert with the Ministerial Staff to meet the spiritual needs of church members through Family Ministry and other Programs. They also shall have the power to act for the Church in other matters not involving a change in policy or polity. However, in all instances final decisions will be made by the congregation. In the case of a question about the interpretation or administration of Church policies, the Deacons shall be consulted for an opinion.

There shall be twenty-four (24) Deacons who serve for staggered terms of three (3) years with one-third of the membership to be elected each year. No Deacon is eligible to serve again until a period of one (1) year has elapsed, except in the case of filling an unexpired term. At the time of election of Deacons each year, the Deacons who are rotating off the active Deacons shall be designated by lot as numbers one through eight.
If a vacancy occurs, Deacon number one will immediately become a full member of the active body. If a second vacancy occurs, Deacon number two will be activated, and so on. Deacons so activated will serve until the next regularly scheduled election of Deacons, at which time all unexpired terms will be filled by action of the Church. A Deacon who serves one year of an unexpired term as defined above will be eligible for election to a full three-year term during the election of Deacons in the same year that he or she is serving. At any regularly scheduled election of Deacons, the Deacons may nominate and the Church may elect to the Office of Honorary Deacon for Life any member of the Church who has a long and honored career and who has served as Deacon for a period of at least ten (10) years.

Persons (18 years of age and over) who have been members of this Church for at least one (1) year as of the balloting date shall be eligible for election to the Deacons. There shall be only one (1) elected deacon per household at any given time.

On or before the first Sunday in November there shall be made available to the membership a list of those eligible to serve as Deacons and a form on which to record the names of members to be voted on for the office of Deacon. Members will vote for two persons for each position to be filled. These ballots will be returned to the Church office, placed in the ballot box or deposited in the offering plate at the Church on or before the close of the Evening Worship Service two weeks after the initial ballots have been distributed. Those receiving the highest number of votes, and who express a willingness to serve, will be declared nominated. The Deacon Chair will invite the 16 nominees to an orientation session after the nomination but before the election. The orientation will cover the role of the diaconate at FBC and other such information as the chair shall determine. The Chair will appoint a committee to assist in this session to include the Deacon Officers and the Senior Minister. Members will then be informed by mail (through the TIE or by letter) of those nominated for their consideration. Nominated individuals will be presented on a ballot at the conclusion of the morning worship service on a Sunday designated for voting. Members will vote for one person for each position to be filled. Absentee ballots will be provided on request. Those receiving the highest number of votes will be declared elected.

When more than one-third (1/3) of the Deacons are to be elected, one or more to fill unexpired terms, the full-term Deacons will be the ones receiving the highest number of votes. Those filling the unexpired terms will be the ones receiving the next lower number of votes. The preparation of the list of those eligible to serve as Deacons and the list of nominees will be under the supervision of a Committee appointed by the Chair of the Deacons. A Committee of Deacons appointed by the Chair will also count the election ballots and report names of those elected to the church at the next regularly scheduled business meeting for inclusion in Church Minutes.

The organization of the Deacons shall be as determined by the Deacons themselves.

Specific operational procedures and governance of the Deacons shall be published and available to the Church. The Chairman of the Deacons shall appoint a Deacon as the Deacon Liaison Member on each of the Church's ministry teams. The Deacon Liaison shall not be a voting member of a team unless the Deacon is also an elected member of that ministry team.

   ministry team has submitted a written report to the Church Office to be included in the Quarterly Business Report;

8. Discuss with each ministry team their Annual Budget Request prior to its submission to the Stewardship and Finance Ministry Team;

   promoting harmony and acting as a mediator;

    long-range planning efforts of the Coordinating Council;
12. Use the Communication Cabinet as one of the ways to facilitate the dispersal of information to ministry teams and feedback from them.

ARTICLE VII Coordinating Council

Section 1. The Coordinating Council is a planning and coordinating organization through which all Church organizations, including ministry teams, coordinate their Issues may be brought to the attention of the membership during a business meeting; however, no issue can be voted on without appropriate notification of the membership. If the issue requires a change in Church policy, Constitution and Bylaws, or it will have a significant impact on Church operations, the Moderator may send it to an appropriate committee or ministry team for study prior to a vote. Any time a previously planned and announced secret ballot is to be used in connection with any vote except the call of a Senior Minister or minister, absentee ballots will be made available to the Church membership. Any person who is unable to attend by reason of illness, infirmity, or absence from the city may secure an absentee ballot by contacting the Church office. Absentee ballots are not intended for use by those who simply do not wish to attend the business meeting.
