We must never forget these three things: 1) God limits trials. No matter how big the situation may seem, God is completely in control of every aspect. 2) God designs challenges for each individual. God tailors each situation we deal with to suit our knowledge, experience, and current circumstances. 3) God allows difficulties to be progressive and uses them to help us grow. When we begin to examine and better understand His ways, we stop worrying. Then, we’re able to live up to our potential.

In times of trials and struggles, we have a choice to make. How will we respond to our hardships: by moaning and whining, or by saying, “Lord, I am thankful that You love me enough to trust me with this situation”? Remember: “God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.” (Romans 8:28).

To our church family.

This is a sad time for my family with the passing of my beautiful mother. I find comfort knowing she is with God. Jerry and I are extremely fortunate to have such a loving church family. Your presence, thoughtfulness, heartfelt cards and words are not only a comfort, but a source of strength for our family and me. I appreciate your kindness and thank you for brightening our world at this difficult time. It really means a lot.
