

organic|love918

Organic Love 918 is the scattered church (members of the church who are at work, home, or out in public Monday-Saturday) looking at people through the eyes of Jesus, recognizing a need and moving to help meet that need.

Donate professional clothes to an organization helping people get back into the workforce.

Pay the toll for the person behind you on the turnpike.

Clean out your closets and give to a non-profit organization.

Reach out to those who are homebound or in a retirement home.

Set up a block party for your neighborhood.

Lend an ear – Spend time talking to, and more importantly listening to someone (same gender) going through a hard time.

Take your neighbor's empty trash can back to his house on trash day.

Bake cookies and deliver them to a neighbor.

Buy gas for someone at QT.

Pay for the car behind you in line at Starbucks or McDonalds.

Write a note of appreciation to someone.

Invite a neighbor over for dinner.

Prepare a meal, or organize a "meal train", for a family with a new baby.

