CONSTITUTION OF THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF TALLMADGE, OHIO

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

ARTICLE I – NAME AND LOCATION

The name of this church shall be the First Congregational Church of Tallmadge, United Church of Christ, located in Tallmadge, Ohio.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The avowed purpose of this church is to provide the followers of Jesus Christ the opportunity:
  to worship God,
  to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to celebrate the Sacraments, to grow in Christian understanding and knowledge of Scriptures, to realize Christian fellowship and unity within the church and the church universal, to render loving service toward humankind, to strive for justice and peace, and to become more deeply committed to the Christian life.

ARTICLE III – POLITY

1. This church shall be a part of the United Church of Christ and it shall sustain that relationship to the United Church of Christ described in those portions of the Constitution and By-laws of the United Church of Christ relating to local churches.

2. The government of this church is vested in its members who exercise the right of control in all its affairs, subject, however, to the Laws of the State of Ohio relating to corporations not for profit.

ARTICLE IV – FAITH AND COVENANT

FAITH - This church acknowledges as its sole Head, Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the Savior of all humanity. It acknowledges as brothers and sisters in Christ all who share in this confession. It looks to the Word of God in the Scriptures from the Holy Bible, and to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit to prosper its creative and redemptive work in the world. It claims as its own the faith of the historic church expressed in the ancient creeds and reclains in the basic insights of the Protestant Reformers. It affirms the responsibility of the church in each generation to make this faith its own. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord and the practice prevailing among evangelical Christians, it recognizes two (2) Sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.
“STATEMENT OF FAITH”

"We believe in God, the Eternal Spirit, Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ and our Father, and to His deeds we testify:

He calls the worlds into being, creates man in His own image and sets before Him the ways of life and death.

He seeks in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

He judges men and nations by His righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Lord, He has come to us and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to Himself.

He bestows upon us His Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the Church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

He calls us into His church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be His servant in the service of men, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at His table, to join Him in His passion and victory.

He promises to all who trust Him forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, His presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in His kingdom which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto Him. Amen."

COVENANT - We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God. We hold it to be our purpose to walk together in the ways of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the church to witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world, while worshipping God, and striving for truth, justice, and peace. As did our fathers, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming of the kingdom of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

Therefore, we declare it our purpose to be loyal to the interests of the First Congregational Church of Tallmadge, so long as we are members of it. We promise that, to the extent of our abilities, we will conscientiously cooperate in sustaining its worship and its ordinances by our attendance and fellowship; in upholding its good name by careful Christian living and by forwarding its work by our encouragement and financial support.
ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP

Active members are those who are in a covenant partnership with this church, attending the regular worship, celebrating the Lord's Supper, living the Christian life, sharing in this church’s life and work, contributing to its support and benevolences, and seeking diligently the spiritual welfare of the members and the community.

ARTICLE VI – OFFICERS
