October 14 - Digital Natives & Immigrants ROFL. Apps. Instagram. Facebook. IM. Chatroom. Blogs. Twitter. iMovie. CUL8R. Oh, my! If you know, use, or love these (and other) terms, you are likely a digital native. Maybe you have heard them but wonder what they mean. Perhaps you "don't really get them" even though you use them. If so, you are a digital immigrant. Regardless of your status, people (including teens and increasingly younger children) are using the Internet on a daily basis. We are Wired. Connected. Online 24/7. As parents, grandparents and a faith community, we have questions about the use of the internet by our children. Come, share stories, ask questions and learn how we can guide our children (and ourselves) in the wide world of the internet and instant communication. Discussion will be lead by Trudi Paulson, Lake City school social worker, mom and self acknowledged digital immigrant.
