New Book Study...

Recently I read a book by Richard Bimler titled Joyful Aging, A Christian Guide. I loved its perspective and bits of humor and thought it would be a fun book to share with others. If there is one thing we are all doing it's aging. Joyful Aging is about celebrating Gods gift of aging instead of moaning and groaning. It's about aging as a blessing. The book is not an answer book, it will not tell you what to do to make your years fine and dandy. It will not rid you of problems, pains and pouting. It will not tell you things will get better if you only shape up and live right. BUT it does promise that we will live happily ever after because of the promise we have in Jesus Christ. Some of the 46 chapter titles include: 8. Laughter and aging go together, 13. Amazing grays, 18. Keeping our aging bodies well, 22. Mattering and mentoring, 27. Leaving a legacy, 28. Grandparenting is grand, 32. That's what friends are for, 34. Go ye forth and connect, 42. Pains, perception, and promise, and 39. Wee,We, Whee all the way home.

If this sounds like something you would like to read and share please contact Sandy Bendickson. If there is enough interest we will meet on Wednesdays in October from 10:00-11:00 a.m. at church. Also if you would like your own copy of the book Sandy will have some for 17.00 each (amazon price).

Every morning smile in your mirror and you will learn to see a big difference in your life.
