Call to Worship

L: We are a pilgrim people- people called out of darkness and walking on a path toward the light.

All: We are here to be open, to be changed. We come to worship God, our Creator, the source of all light.

L: We are a wilderness people, a people called out of slavery into our resurrection freedom.

All: We are here to hear again that our sin is forgiven and to worship God, the giver of forgiveness.

L: People of God, we begin in the name of God, our Creator, Jesus, our Savior, and the Holy Spirit, our comforter. Amen

We Confess Our Shortcomings

All: God today we pause to confess our shortcomings in life and love. We want to live life to the fullest, but we always seem to become disillusioned or disappointed. We want to have deep, meaningful relationships, but we seem to short circuit those we love with our own selfishness. God, we need the power to change, but we realize now we cannot do it on our own. We are sinful. We fall short of the mark. We ask for your forgiveness.

We Hear God's Forgiving Promises

L: The God of all creation has entered our human existence in the person of Jesus Christ. Through him, our sinful condition has been given new possibilities of faith and life. By his death and resurrection, the price of our sin has been paid in full and we stand before God as new people. The Holy Spirit is present with us and in us to give us power to live out this new life. By the Spirit we have life. Praise God!
