Life in Christ University Last Night @ 5:30 - Summit

• Missions Dilemma – A Strategy for doing Missions
  By Steve Saint
  Facilitator: Bro. Alan Miller

• Becoming More Than a Good Bible Study Girl
  By Lysa TerKeurst
  Facilitator: Stacey Young
  Lysa encourages you to enjoy special time with God, discover the life-changing words of Scripture, and embrace the joy of the Lord.

• The Gospels From A Jewish Perspective
  By Bob Warren
  Facilitator: Jay Larkin
  The four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John) are laid out in chronological order and examined from a Jewish perspective—meaning that we try as best we can to view them through the eyes of a Jew who would have lived in Jesus’ day.

• Youth - Living What You Believe
  Facilitator: Taylor Hicks
  Youth will go through the book of James and examine what it means to take what we hear, read, and learn about our faith and actually live it out in our lives.

Safety & Security Alert

In order to make our campus safer, especially for our children, doors will be locked fifteen minutes after the beginning of our services and classes. It is not our intent to inconvenience anyone, namely our guests/visitors. Signs will soon be placed on all doors informing everyone as to when they will be locked. In the meantime, everyone’s patience and cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Kids Against Hunger Holiday Gift Sale

Kids Against Hunger will have a table set up in the Fellowship Café after morning service today selling Terri Lynn snacks. Each purchase will provide enough meals to feed a child for a month! These are perfect for gift-giving or holiday baking. Selections include: Pecan Halves, Giant Cashews, Roasted Almonds, Colossal Pistachios, Spicy Snack Mix, Turkish Dried Apricots, and a Deluxe Nut Mix. Please stop by and purchase a bag or two and feed a child in need.
