

Dee Brestin
The God of All Comfort
Finding Your Way Into His Arms

Our retreat leader, Dee Brestin (www.deebrestin.com), is a writer, speaker, and teacher. She is a frequent guest on Moody Radio's Mid-day connection) and Focus on the Family and speaks to many large women's conferences yearly. She is unique as a speaker in that she believes in helping women see the powerful truth of God's Word as well as hear it through dramatic audio-visuals. Her teaching evokes both laughter and tears.

For over thirty years Dee has profoundly impacted the hearts of women through her internationally published Bible studies and speaking engagements. Dee's first book was The Friendships of Women which became a classic. That was the beginning of Dee's ministry, for that book sold over a million copies. In August of 2009, The God of All Comfort (Finding Your Way Into His Arms) was released. Dee feels it is the best work God has allowed her to do, springing out of her own journey after losing her husband, at the age of 59, to colon cancer.

Dee is a frequent guest on Focus on the Family and Moody Radio's Mid-Day Connection. She also has a heart for prison ministry to women (Discipleship Unlimited) and for the victims for human trafficking (International Justice Mission). There will be an offering collected during the retreat for the International Justice Mission.

Dee is a graduate of Northwestern University and has studied with Covenant Seminary. She is the mother of five grown children.

Join us as we explore the depth of relationship with Christ in scripture, music, and in fellowship with other women.
