Worship In Radioland

We are delighted to broadcast our service on Sunday Mornings. Just tune in to KINA 910 on the AM dial by 10:05 a.m. and hear our service. If you wish to have a bulletin mailed to you, please let us know by calling Melanie in the Church Office 785-825-0226, or download from our website at http://fpcsalina.org/#/resources/bulletins Few things are as rewarding as spending one hour during your week reading with students at Oakdale Elementary School.

This November we are planning to continue our efforts to put one volunteer reader in an Oakdale classroom each day for one hour. But, we need your help!
We are looking for volunteers who are available one day a week or two days a month (particularly on Fridays) from 8:50 a.m. – 9:50 a.m. to read with students who are struggling in school. If you are interested please contact the church office or Austin Ashenbrenner.

Guatemala 2014 Mission Trip:
Informational Meeting

Have you heard the buzz around FPC about how the mission trips to Guatemala have been incredible and eye opening? Want to experience this opportunity for yourself? Well, here's your chance!
Registration materials will be available for the 2014
Spring Guatemala Mission Trip (March 15-22).
The registration deadline will be December 8th.

If you have questions about any aspect of this trip
please join us for our Mission Trip Informational Meeting on Sunday, December 1st at 11:30 a.m.
Can you believe it's almost Christmas? Yes, I know it isn't even Thanksgiving yet, but I guess as a culture, we're always looking forward to what comes next. So I thought I would share with you a little about what's coming next at FPC.

Over the last couple months, I have spent a lot of time meeting with church leaders to get a sense of the hopes and goals FPC has for this interim time and for the future. Very briefly, this is a summary of what I have heard:

1. Focus on the future – let’s celebrate our past, but recognize that we can’t live in the past. Who are we today? Where are we going?
2. What staff and organizational structure do we need going forward?
3. Foster relationships and build community.
4. Get back onto a growth trajectory.

All good goals, and we’re going to be working on all of them during our interim time. Already we’ve got committees dreaming of new ideas and endeavors, some of which we’ve already got going (some adult ed options), some of which you’ll be hearing about in the coming months.

This year we’ve also been busy attending to a lot of behind the scenes stuff, such as staff transitions, cleaning up some policies, and getting some things organized that had fallen by the wayside. We’ve been using this time to catch our breath and to breathe, and to get back into a routine and to re-establish a sense of normalcy – necessary if we are all going to stay sane!

Beginning in January, we’ll make plans for reviewing our current mission statement, evaluating our current ministry, and exploring where our passion, the world’s needs, and God’s call intersect.

Then we’ll figure out what staffing we need to best be the church God is calling us to be, and who will be a good fit for our passion and needs. There will be generous opportunities for everyone to be involved in all of this.

It is anticipated that this would take us until approximately late spring/early summer. Then we’ll be able to call a Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC), who will take what we’ve done, put together the Ministry Information Form (the church’s version of a resume), and begin searching for a pastor. From that point, all is in the hands of the PNC and God.

A Very Rough Timeline for Calling a New Pastor

- December 8th & 15th: Get ready for the best Christmas shopping opportunity in the entire world!!! This December FPC is hosting a Fair Trade Holiday Market with our retail partner, Connected, of Lindsborg. All products for sale are made by workers who are paid a fair wage. These are products that you can feel good about buying and giving, as they are of the highest quality.

On Sunday December 8th and 15th from 11:30 – 2:30 come join us in Blair Hall for this fantastic sale! Lunch will be available for a small donation. Tell your friends!

Family Mission Night: Wednesday, December 18th

On Wednesday, December 18th EVERYONE at FPC is invited to join us for our 3rd annual Family Mission Night. This is an opportunity to spread some Christmas joy. We will collect donated items to benefit the Ashby House residents and hand deliver them along with some Christmas Carols.

Join us for dinner, hot-coca, cookies, and caroling as we brighten the night of many in our neighborhood. See you then.
We are now 2 months into our Wednesday Children’s Education classes – and we are having a great time! There is much fun and learning happening. Our new Bibles are getting a work out as we travel through the Bible from Genesis to Revelation this year. The kids are really having a good time discovering what’s in their Bibles and how to use them. They’re learning a lot, too – perhaps they’re learning some things that YOU may not know! Here is a sampling of some of what our FPC kiddos have learned about the Bible so far. Test your knowledge and see how much you know! Enjoy!

• There are 66 books in the Bible; 39 in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament.
• Genesis, the first book of the Bible, means “beginning” or “origin.”
• The oldest person recorded in the Bible is Methuselah who lived to be 969 years old! (Genesis 5:27)
• Exodus, the second book of the Bible, means “exit” or “leaving” and records the story of the Hebrew people exiting from Egypt.
• The Torah is the name for the first 5 books of the Bible and means “teaching” or “law.”
• Samuel was about 12 years old when he heard God’s voice calling to him in the night. (1 Samuel 3)
• Nowhere in the book of Esther does the name of God appear.
• The longest Psalm is Psalm 119 with 167 verses.
• The shortest Psalm is Psalm 117 with 2 verses.
• If you open up your Bible right in the middle, you’ll most likely open it to the book of Psalms.

Sr. High “Slow Down” Retreat: December 6th – 7th

Life is busy. Life for the average high school student is especially busy. So how do we make sure that in the midst of everything going on in our lives we “Slow Down” to connect with God and others? How do we make space in our lives to be open to what God wants to teach us?

Sign-up for this important Sr. High overnight retreat in December to get away with friends and spend time learning how to slow down.

Registration materials will be available in late October and the registration deadline will be November 17th. Sign up soon!

College Student Care Packages

When you are a college student preparing for Finals Week, there is just nothing better than getting a package in the mail full of homemade baked goods, candy, and notes from back home.

Would you like to help us make the days or weeks of the FPC College students? On Sunday, Dec. 1st at 9:00 a.m. we will be assembling boxes to be shipped to students. We’d like to invite you to come help us. If you would like to contribute money to help “sponsor a box” you can do that, or you can bring goodies/gift cards/or other fun items to stuff these boxes full of love for our kids.

Sr. High Summer Mission Trip: Informational Meeting

Attention Parents and all students currently in grades 8 – 12. We are busy getting ready for our 2014 Summer Mission Trip and we want you to get ready with us. This trip promises to be an amazing opportunity…but only if you are a part of it.

The registration deadline for this trip has been moved to January 12th.

Have questions or concerns about this trip? We’ve got just the thing for you. On Sunday, January 5th at 11:30 a.m. you are all invited to a Mission Trip Informational Meeting! Come learn everything you want to know about the trip and then sign up.

Celebrating FPC Youth: Nerf Wars-Story on following page.
Celebrating FPC Youth

At FPC there is always plenty of activity buzzing around the hallways. In the midst of this activity the Youth + Young Adult Committee would like to take a moment to pause and celebrate our wonderful students.

This past week, on Wednesday, October 16th Mid-High Students enjoyed a spectacular night of “Nerf Wars” here at FPC. This event was dreamed up by the students themselves and they had a great time helping in the planning. Students showed their excitement by inviting their friends to experience the fun we have at FPC. The result was 27 very energetic students having a great time running around FPC playing crazy fun games. This type of fun is one of the ways that we come together as a group. Through these shared experiences we are able to build lasting relationships that display Christ’s love for one another. We had a great time and wanted to celebrate with you, our church family!

Adult Christian Education + Ministry

New Member Exploration Class:
Sunday, November 10, 11:15 a.m. in the Conference Room

Do you want to know more about First Presbyterian Church?

Do you want to know what the Session does? Or the Deacons?

Have you wondered what makes Presbyterians different from other Christian churches?

Have you wondered what we believe about God, the Church, the Cross, Baptism, or anything else?

Are you interested in learning about joining the church?

On Sunday, November 10, we will be hosting a New Member Exploration Class for anyone who is interested in knowing more about being a part of the First Presbyterian Church in Salina. We will meet at 11:15 a.m. in the Conference Room. Lunch will be provided. We will meet for approximately 1 ½ - 2 hours.

Please sign up at the table in the lobby outside the sanctuary, or call the office and let us know you'll be coming. Be sure to let us know if child care is needed.

Rage, Revenge and Religion
Starts Sunday, November 3, at 9:00 a.m.

We live in a violent world. In the Middle East, groups have been fighting in the name of religion for hundreds of years. In our own country there is violence at all levels which we learn about daily. These incidents involve all age groups and seem to represent an outburst of hate and anger.

In our classes, we will discuss the hot spots in these situations. We will also attempt to develop a clearer understanding of anger and how it can be managed.

Every session will be at 9 a.m. and will run until approximately 9:45

• 11/03/13 Dr. Paula Fried, PhD. Topic- Bullying and social anger
• 11/10/13 Randy Hardy Topic- Extreme ends in the political arena
• 11/17/13 Gerald Gillispie Topic- Emotional confrontation and harshness in society
• 11/24/13 Monte Shadwick Topic- violence in the Middle East
The Missionary Society was the first women's organization formed at First Presbyterian Church. The 23-year-old church was a Home Mission church, which influenced the women to include both foreign and home missions as recipients of their financial gifts. The Women's Missionary Society held its first tea in 1883 at Mrs. William “Grandma” Phillips’ home. The women who attended gave a total of $40 for mission work.

First Presbyterian also had a Ladies Aid Society, formed a short time later. One of their money-making projects was to publish a small magazine The Souvenir for Christmas in 1901.

In 1902, daughters of the Ladies Aid Society formed the Daughters of the Church. At first it was purely social. In 1919, they began raising money to use for the second church building. They purchased carpet, curtains, a typewriter and needed supplies. All the extra money was put into a building fund for the current building.

In 1911 the Church secretary, Edith Gould, formed the Presbyterian Guild, which met at nights for professionals and women who worked. In 1913, Dr. Alfred VanOrden, minister, organized the Willing Workers to promote religious, social and material interests in the church. He divided them into circles.

In the 1920s when the new church was built, each group made a $500 annual pledge and usually gave much more – up to $2,517.50. They were tireless workers and masters at raising money. Members pledged personally to give $5 each year. These women devoted themselves to help pay the interest on the church debt and on the debt itself.

On October 7, 1948, the Presbyterian Women’s Association was born. This group was renamed in 1959 United Presbyterian Women. This organization remained active until the 1990’s, but the membership had decreased enough that by 2001, the last active group, the sewing circle, was disbanded.

Women in First Presbyterian Church have always taken a vital and active part in this church. The History Committee has recently completed sorting and organizing a large variety of materials from the women's organizations. There is a display of artifacts relating to this project on second floor next to the Presbytery Office and History Room.

A big Thank You to all Deacons, Elders, Trustees and the Nominating Committee who so graciously agreed to serve our church in the coming years. How great it is that we have people like you who want to give of their time, talent and energy in order for our church to continue to nurture and serve our congregation with God’s love in all that we do. We look forward to working with each of you and invite you to attend upcoming meetings which are held at the church. The next Deacon meeting is November 19th at 5:30 p.m. The Elders next meeting is on November 11 at 5:30 with Session. Trustees next meeting is November 21st at 12:00 p.m. Attending these meetings will give you an opportunity to meet with the current members and observe actions taken by each group.

Thank you again for serving our church.

- Bev Zizumbo -- chair Nominating Committee
EQUIP – with Resources
Because of your generosity, today every child in this church is equipped with a Bible of his or her own. A few months ago five year old Zoe Davidson’s light was on past her bedtime – in fact it was 9 p.m. Her dad wondered what was up. What he found was Zoe giggling over a picture of Jonah and the whale, obviously not wanting to stop looking through her new Bible. That night the light stayed on a while longer!

ENGAGE – with Others
Because of your generosity, the youth of this church engage with others throughout Salina and the world. At the Salina Food Bank, Teresa Cooper, 15, likes being part of “everyone working hard and doing something directly to help feed people who might otherwise go hungry.” Carson Michaelis, 13, went on the Guatemala Mission trip in the spring. So did his mother and grandfather. He said “it was really cool to be immersed in a whole other culture – and see how Mom and Papo adapted, along with how I did too.”

EMERGE – with Abundant Life
Because of your generosity, today there is a new feeling of excitement emerging in the church. “Joy has returned to the church” was recently overheard following Sunday morning worship. Connie Johnson, a Wednesday night regular, says “there’s renewed interest in Wednesday night. People are excited about being together. That time speaks to a different crowd – and it’s good to be reached!”

EQUIP, ENGAGE, EMERGE
Remember – our future is as open and broad as we can imagine. Now is the time to continue supporting the work of this extraordinary place.

Now is your opportunity to give generously!

Stewardship packets are out to the congregation. Please return your pledge card by November 24.

Think hard and prayerfully about your stewardship commitment for next year, increasing your pledge if possible.

Now is the time to EQUIP ourselves and this church for energized, healthy growth.

Now is your opportunity – give generously!

Now is the time to ENGAGE with others as we look deeply at ourselves, as we consider God’s call, and as we make plans for our future.

Now is your opportunity – give generously!

Now is the time we will EMERGE as a stronger, healthier, active church – ready to fly.

Now is your opportunity – give generously!
Exciting things are happening in the Presbytery of Northern Kansas. On September 30 we sent a mission trip to Joplin, Missouri to help them as they continue to recover from the tornadoes that devastated their community a few years ago. Beyond the painting and the repair work that they were able to do, their presence reminds the people of Joplin that they are not alone, that they have not been forgotten, and that people still care about them. Those are important messages to send.

On October 8 we held our Presbytery meeting at the First Presbyterian Church of Riley. As far as anyone there could remember, that was the first time that a presbytery meeting had ever been held at that church. They did a great job of hosting us along with the Fairview Presbyterian Church. Our speaker that day was the Rev. Carol Howard Merritt. Her presentation was called “Reframing Hope” and was based on a book that she wrote which was published in 2010. She reminded us that there are multiple ways to look at a situation and that we can choose to look at a situation with hope. As Christians we can and we need to do that.

On October 19-20 the presbytery will sponsor a youth rally at the First Presbyterian Church of Junction City. Almost 100 youth and young adult sponsors will gather around the theme “Got Breath?” to worship, study scripture, and have fun.

Throughout October and November John and Gwenth Haspels will be visiting churches in the presbytery talking about the work they are doing in Ethiopia that includes evangelism, education, medical care as well as development. They are both the children of missionaries and having been doing mission work in Ethiopia and Sudan since 1974.

These events wouldn’t happen without your support. We wouldn’t be able to send people out on mission trips. We wouldn’t be able to bring in nationally known speakers to teach us and challenge us and encourage us. We wouldn’t be able to bring the youth of our churches together for a fun and inspiring time. We wouldn’t be able to send mission workers overseas or bring them back to help us understand their work. Your gifts are making a difference throughout Kansas; in North Dakota, Joplin, and New Orleans; and around the world. People are learning about Jesus Christ. Lives are being touched. We are growing in our faith.

Please know how much we appreciate your support and please know what a difference your gifts make.

Ed Thompson, General Presbyter/Stated Clerk
