Pastor Clint began his service to First Presbyterian Church, Maumee in 2010. He previously served as Pastor/Head of Staff for six years at First Presbyterian Church in Greenfield, OH. He facilitated effective ministries there such as growth groups, Grief Share, and the Truth Project. He also served as a community leader at the Greenfield Area Christian Center, which reaches out to youth, and individuals in need.

Clint received his Masters of Divinity from Gordon Conwell Seminary in South Hamilton, Massachusetts in 2005, graduating cum laude. While there he was awarded the “Pierce Disciplemaking Scholarship” for committing to personal discipleship within the local church.

Prior to his call to Greenfield, Pastor Clint received training in evangelism, discipleship, overseas missions, and fundraising with The Navigators, serving as campus chaplain at Purdue University for three years. Pastor Clint first became involved with The Navigators while a student at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Graduating in 1999 and majoring in secondary education, he was involved at Miami as a Student Bible Study Leader and served as President of Sigma Theta Epsilon, a Christian service fraternity.

He and his wife, Stacey, whom he met in the 7th grade, are raising four children: Isaac, Lily, Shannon and Owen. Pastor Clint spends his leisure time reading and doing home improvement projects. He is also an avid Buckeyes, Cleveland Browns and Cincinnati Reds fan.

Pastor Clint is committed to God’s Word and helping others to experience Christ’s love and forgiveness. He is also committed to helping the church remain relevant in an ever-changing culture.
