Execution Is Everything

Going through old church files, I came across a document from 1979 entitled "Church Officers' Retreat: Evangelism." It recounted the tremendous dropoff in worship attendance our church experienced from 1963 to 1979 (from an average of 418 to 160, a drop of over 60%). The report then outlined a series of actions they needed to take to stem the tide.

Most of the ideas were pretty obvious. "We must create a friendly, accepting church." "A way must be found to note visitors." "We need to investigate our relationship with blacks and Hispanics." "Minister to singles." "Explore possible service projects in the community."

In recent years we've been blessed to experience an influx of new members and attendance growth. Why? When I looked at the this 1979 report, it seems that we've actually implemented almost everything on the list. We've achieved a significant level of diversity. We minister to different groups. We are definitely friendly and accepting. We have implemented a variety of community mission projects.

The 1979 report even identified some geographic opportunities, such as noting that there is no other Presbyterian presence between us and the Hudson River. And sure enough, a huge chunk of our growth is families attending who live east/southeast of us.

The interesting thing is that we didn't have an officers' retreat to determine that we should do these things. We've just been doing them. We consciously focused on how welcoming we were. We paid special attention to underrepresented populations of all kinds. And it is working.

Lesson: diagnosis is easy, execution is everything.

One of the underrated characters of the Bible is Nehemiah. Yes, he even has a book of the Bible named after him, but it isn't read very often in our churches. His story is set long after the kingdoms of Israel and Judah had been conquered, and Jerusalem – the capital city of Judah – had been destroyed by the Babylonians. The Persians (modern-day Iran) conquered the Babylonians (modern-day Iraq) and restored relative freedom to Judah. Perhaps a hundred years later comes the story of Nehemiah – somewhere in the vicinity of the year 450 B.C.E.

In ancient times a city was defined by its walls. Nehemiah, cup-bearer to the king of Persia, learned that the walls of Jerusalem remained broken-down. He asked the king for permission to visit Jerusalem, see the walls in ruins, and sought permission to rebuild them. He inspected the walls, and made a simple proclamation: “You see the trouble we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins with its gates burned. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so that we may no longer suffer disgrace.” (Nehemiah 2:17)

Was he the first person to notice that the walls were in ruins? Of course not. But for years no one had taken the initiative to start the project. Of course, as soon as he did so enemies of Jerusalem surfaced. There were those who had a vested interest in keeping Jerusalem in ruins. Sad to say, we often find ourselves in the company of some people who have a vested interest in keeping us weak or dysfunctional. We have to, as Nehemiah did, ignore those voices. When people tried to distract him (some even with the intent of luring him into a death trap), Nehemiah simply refused to come down from the wall: “I am doing a great work and I cannot come down.” (Nehemiah 6:3)

How often do we expend too much energy thinking about what we should do in situations where we already know what we need to do? Sure there are times when we truly don’t know what to do. But sometimes – perhaps more often than not – we know what to do and we simply haven’t done it. In such case, we just need to decide to start fixing what we know is wrong in our lives, our families, our workplaces, our church. You already know what needs to be done. Go, start it, stick with it, and don’t come down until it’s done.

Peace and blessings,

Rich

CROSSROADS

Come and check out the CROSSROADS worship on Sunday evenings at 5:30 p.m. in the Chapel. It's casual, lively, and fun, with a great band led by Jane Kelly Williams and the same basic sermon as Sunday morning (with multimedia enhancements). It's a great alternative – give it a try and invite your friends!

Family/children's/Youth Ministries

C.A.M.P.

C.A.M.P., our new Children's Art and Music Program, begins another six-weeks on Sunday afternoons, starting on February 26 at 3 p.m. The C.A.M.P. is for 2nd to 5th graders directed by Jane Kelly Williams with several others providing leadership. It includes the choir rehearsal of Singing Sensations, time for Bible Study, homework, a snack, attending worship at Crossroads at 5:30 p.m. for Time with Children and then at the end of the Service to return and sing to the glory of God.

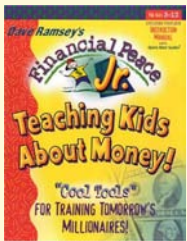

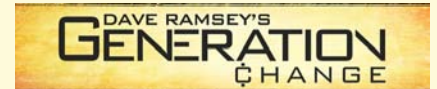

CHILDREN LEARN ABOUT GIVING

In January, children had the opportunity to learn what it means to give an offering to the work and mission of their church with members of the Stewardship Committee, Paul Platek and Linda Farrell. They also received offering envelopes for 2012. We have noticed that only about 5 or 6 students do give an offering almost every Sunday. Thank you to parents who are guiding their children at a very young age to be good stewards of the resources that we have.

GENERATION CHANGE

The two Youth Classes met with Paul Platek for a review of GENERATION CHANGE which is Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University for youth and encouraged them also to be good stewards of their money, their gifts and talents.

FINANCIAL PEACE UNIVERSITY, JR. is a one-hour, single session course for parents and children. The resource kit for the class contains the same principles of the adult course, and is only $19.99. Eleven parents with children age 4 to 14 have already begun the process. Who else is interested? Speak with Paul Platek or Dorothy VanderWerf.

GODSPELL

The Godspell performance on Broadway was thoroughly enjoyed by 35 children, youth and adults on January 22! Here are some of their comments:

I loved it soo much!!! It was especially fun because we performed a junior Broadway version of it a few years ago.

The stage was soooooooo cool and the cast was so full of energy! The show was fantastic!!!!

Who would have thought that a musical about the Bible would be so entertaining? The cast truly had the voices of angels, and the intimate setting of a small theater in the round was perfect for telling the story. I loved the fact that they included very timely references. Fabulous!

The first half was so funny that I cried off my mascara. The contemporary material was brilliant. The second half was so poignant that I just kept on crying. The cast performed for us as if there was nothing on earth they would rather do. They are a young class of very professional actors and actresses, everyone blessed with good voices, and amazing talents. It was great. I absolutely loved it!! Thanks to Dorothy for making all the arrangements.

PARENT/PLAYGROUP MEETS IN FEBRUARY

All parents with their young children are welcome to join others in the Nursery on Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. Jenni Choi prepares a story and activity for the children while parents connect with other parents and enjoy this time together on Wednesdays, February 1, 8, 15, and 29. They will not meet on February 22.

2ND SUNDAY PARENTING GROUP SPONSORS VALENTINE'S DAY PARTY

Young children and their Parents are invited to a "MAKE A VALENTINE" party in the East Room on Sunday, February 12, at 12:15 p.m. Snacks and all the supplies for children to express their creativity in making valentines will be provided. Alison Raffaele, coordinator, Glenn Tatem, her husband, and India, their 2 ½ year old daughter, welcome you to join them.

SOUPER BOWL OF CARING

This year, on February 5th, our church will join thousands of groups nationwide to raise money for a local charity. Last year, 260,000 Youth came together to raise a total of $9.5 million worth of money and food donations. This year, our national goal is to have 275,000 Youth gather to collect $11 million. Our church, last year, was able to raise $500 ~ the most we have ever collected!

Everyday, people throw out some of their food; whether a restaurant gave them too big of a portion, or they simply don't want what was offered to them. One in seven homes do not throw out their food because they don't have enough to eat to begin with. This unfortunate ratio leaves over 16 million kids without very much food. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, in 52 years, this has been the highest number of Americans living in poverty.

Last year, First Presbyterian Church of Englewood hosted homeless families through Family Promise for two weeks in July and a week in December. Money collected from the Souper Bowl of Caring was used to buy materials to provide comfort for the families and to give the parents gift certificates to buy their children a present for Christmas. Because it was so successful, we will use the money we collect for materials we need to host the families this year, as well. To help reach the national goal and help provide materials for Family Promise, please donate a few dollars to one of the youth group members holding a soup pot that will be standing outside the sanctuary after worship on February 5th.

CUB SCOUTS COME TO THE CHURCH

FIRST THURSDAY BIBLE STUDY

Thursday, February 2 at 10:00 a.m. in the East Room

The First Thursday study group meets on February 2 at 10:00 a.m. in the East Room. Please join us for an interesting and enlightening time as Rev. Hong continues our exploration of the origins of the stories in the book of Genesis.

SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY

Sundays, 10:00 a.m. in the East Room (Childcare Provided)

We really encourage you to try the Sunday Morning Bible Study at 10:00 a.m. in the East Room each week. In this study we review the text that forms the basis of the sermon that day, illuminating issues of history, context, and translation that affect the interpretation of the story into a message for us. You'll understand more of the background that undergirds the sermon in a setting where you get to know some of your fellow worshippers better.

BASICS OF FAITH: THE BIBLE

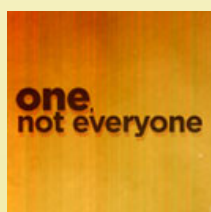

Sunday, February 5 at 10:00 a.m. in the Meeting Room

We're continuing a monthly series of rotating presentations ideal for persons who are new to the congregation, the Presbyterian church, or Christian faith (though everyone is invited). This month Rev. Hong will lead a presentation on the Bible. What are the origins of our sacred text, and how do we approach interpreting it for our time? Future presentations, each on the first Sunday of the month, will focus on the church, and on Presbyterianism. Please join us and bring your questions!

ONE, NOT EVERYONE

Sunday, February 12 at 12:45 p.m. in the Chapel

Are you moved by the needs of the world yet frustrated by your inability to make an impact for the better? How can you make a difference in a big world with big needs when everything you have to offer seems, by comparison, inadequate? Do you want to make a real difference this year? Attend this session (first of two parts) where we will watch an incredible message by Pastor Andy Stanley that he delivered to his church (North Point Community Church) last year. It will motivate and inspire you to understand how you – and we – can impact the world. Our elders and deacons watched this message a few months ago and decided it was important to share it with all of you.

THE POWER OF A WHISPER

Sunday, February 26 at 12:45 p.m. in the Chapel

After attending "One, Not Everyone" (or even if you missed it), please come to this session that combines a brief video by Bill Hybels (founding pastor of Willow Creek Community Church) with an opportunity for group discussion on the question: How can you be attuned to the directions of the Holy Spirit and choose a life led by God's whispers?

SIN. GRACE. TRUTH.

Tuesdays, February 21 & 28, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. in the East Room

As we enter the season of Lent, let's take time to explore these most fundamental concepts of our faith. What is sin? Is it to be heard as a noun or a verb? Is it an act or a state? How about grace? It's not just compassion or forgiveness – it's so much more. In this two-part session led by Rev. Hong we will explore the truth about sin and grace ... and discover some truths about God and ourselves.

All proceeds raised from The Tour of Light concert will go to support orphans and vulnerable children through Children of Uganda.

MANY WINTER COATS COLLECTED

Jacinth Timol-Francis managed this project for both the Mission and Outreach Committees. There were two huge boxes overflowing with coats donated by the congregation. Benny Baez informed us that the families in North Bergen who lost their homes in that terrible fire could use clothes and food. Jacinth said that when she delivered them, they were so appreciative and say, “thank you so much for helping us”.

A SOLID YEAR, BUT WE NEED MORE

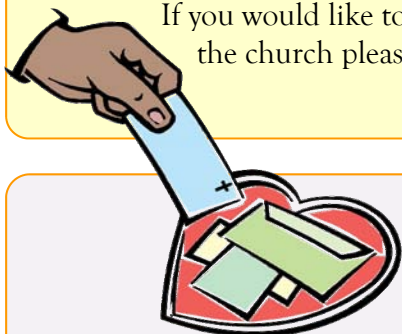

I am very pleased to report that total giving for 2011 was $341,870 which represents a 10% increase over last year's total of $311,011. I realize that we are still experiencing very difficult economic times with many people losing their jobs and experiencing declines in the value of their homes and/or stock portfolios. I therefore thank everyone for caring enough about the good work of our church to support our efforts. I hope you gave not because you feel you had to but because of the love you feel for Jesus Christ.

On a little more somber note, commitments for 2012 are running slightly behind the commitments we received for 2011. Traditionally we raise more money than is committed as many congregants and friends of the church choose not to commit for the year, but still give generously. However, submitted commitments are $243,384 from 83 congregants vs. $248,215 last year from 92 congregants. There is still time to submit your commitment card, if you choose to, and we know that many people don't commit until they have a good understanding of their finances going into the new year. Please keep in mind that if your economic situation changes you will not be held to this commitment (you're also allowed to give more). We are projecting another 10% + increase in giving this year, thus the concern about the lower level of commitments.

On another note, I hope many of you have remembered the church in your wills. We are all enjoying the magnificent sounds of the refurbished pipe organ which some of you may not know would not have been possible without the generous bequest of Luella Schmidt, a long time FPC congregant and music lover.

If you would like to learn more about the techniques regarding leaving a portion of your estate to the church please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Paul A. Platek, Stewardship Chair

WHAT IS PER CAPITA & WHY ARE WE BEING ASKED TO PAY IT?

Those of you who received envelopes to remit your contributions to the church also got an envelope which may have confused you. That is the envelope right in the front called Per Capita. What is this and why are you being asked to pay $30.00 per person?

Our church is part of a larger governing body called Presbyterian Church (USA) and as a member we share in the benefits afforded by this membership. Some of the things PC (USA) provides are the following:

- The production and distribution of the Book of Order (the book used by the Elders and Minister to govern the church) and the Book of Confessionals
- Expenses related to bringing delegates to a General Assembly, as well as holding the meeting
- Tools to develop and administer ordination exams
- The call system and other work that helps all Presbyterians discern their vocation
- A Presbyterian presence at ecumenical groups and gatherings in the U.S. and worldwide ... And Much More

Some of these items may not mean much to you especially if you are not involved with the governance of the church, but it encompasses the means by which our church functions and we do benefit greatly by being part of this larger body of churches.

Our church needs to pay this per capita amount regardless of whether you pay it or not. Last year we paid $10,500 and collected $2,000 from the congregants so $8,500 was spent by the church. This is money which could have been used for mission projects or general maintenance of our building. I therefore, encourage everyone to pay their per capita amount. If you don't have envelopes you can still send in a check or drop it in with your contribution on Sunday.
