Get Off Your Donkey

“Get Off Your Donkey” is the title (an intentional double-entendre) of a new book by Christian author Reggie McNeal. It is an allusion to the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), in which a man comes upon someone who had been beaten, robbed, and left for dead. The story says that the Good Samaritan put the victim “on his own animal” (presumably the donkey that the Good Samaritan had been riding himself) and took him to an inn to be cared for. In other words, he got off his donkey and helped!

We don’t really experience the Christian life until we begin to do as Christ commands. Too often, we view Christian obedience as being about not doing the “thou shalt nots” of the Bible – don’t steal, don’t murder, etc. There’s also one in there about honoring the Sabbath (hint).

But Christian obedience is actually rooted in living as Jesus wants us to live, not just avoiding certain things. Until we experience life through following Jesus, we won’t really understand the joys of discipleship.

Reggie puts it this way: “The best strategy for experiencing the abundant life that Jesus talked about is through loving our neighbors. ... I’m not just inviting you to a life of service; I maintain that you’ll get a life through service. I am not suggesting that we love our neighbors for selfish reasons. But service to others carries its own life-enriching rewards for the ones doing the serving.”

“I attend church” and “I am a faithful Christian” are not synonymous declarations. Attending worship services is a part of the Christian life, but it’s mostly a spectator activity. Attending church is like watching a cooking show. Yes, I love watching cooking shows. I enjoy seeing them make beautiful creations in a short time. I imagine that the dishes are incredibly tasty. But you can’t taste it until you make it!

If you attend church – maybe you’ve just started, maybe it’s been for a while – and you aren’t feeling the benefits of faith. If you aren’t really experiencing the abundant spiritual life Jesus promises to us – then maybe it’s time to put your faith into practice in the service of others. The service you render

He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him."

– Luke 10:34

doesn't have to be in the church (the Good Samaritan, as a Samaritan, would not have even been permitted in a Jewish synagogue), though we provide frequent opportunities to serve. Just serve. See someone in need and help. Do it in the name of Christ. Thank God for the opportunity. Pray about the experience and share your feelings about it with God.

Suppose you were asked to list: what did I do in the past week that stemmed from my faith? If that list only has "worship" on it, then you are missing out. You can watch Rachael Ray every day for years and not become a better cook. You have to do it.

Experiencing the abundant life in Christ begins with adopting an attitude of abundance. Share of yourself. Give your skills. Give your money. Give your time. It is in giving that you discover how much you have.

As Reggie reminds us: "Maybe you can't change the world, but you can change your street. You may not be able to change your community's graduation rate, but you mentor one kid out of being a dropout. Wiping out hunger may be too daunting a task, but packing food into schoolkids' backpacks so they can eat over the weekend is doable."

When you act, you will make a difference. When you make a difference, you will understand that you have been God's hands and feet, helping to build God's world. So let us all get off our donkeys.

Peace and blessings,

Rich

GRACE UNPLUGGED MOVIE SUNDAY FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL AND HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH

Sunday October 6th 4pm – 7:30pm *

Save the date as we meet at Garden State Plaza AMC movie theater to see the new feature film GRACE unplugged and then head back to FPC for pizza and conversation.

What is GRACE unplugged about? Check out the GRACE unplugged website and here's a brief look: Having just turned 18, Grace Trey aspires to more than just singing at her church, where the worship leader is her father—a former pop star. So, with the help of Mossy, her dad's former manager, Grace records a cover version of her dad's old Top-10 hit, runs off to Los Angeles, and begins to taste the kind of stardom she's always dreamed about. Yet with each rung of the ladder she climbs, Grace feels more and more pressure to compromise her values, further straining her relationship with her parents. Will everything she experiences lead her to reject her faith ... or rediscover it? FPC will be buying a block of movie tickets and *times may slightly vary.

Tickets are $12 each, scholarships available. Sign up for this Movie outing on the FPC Web site in the 'Happenings' section or email Pastor Kellie with any questions, Kellie@Englewoodpres.org.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Our annual Blessing of the Animals service will take place on Sunday, October 6 at 2:00 p.m. in the Memorial Garden. Please bring your four-legged friends of all kinds to a brief, casual service that celebrates the wonder of all God's creatures.

Please call the Church Office (201-568-7373 ext. 0 or office@englewoodpres.org) and also indicate if you have any dietary restrictions or require child care in the nursery. We will be scheduling these regularly throughout the year. (Save the date: persons wishing to become members of FPC are invited to meet with the elders on Sunday, November 10 and be received in worship on Sunday, November 17.)

OCTOBER'S CULTURAL SUNDAY

A note from Outreach: Christopher Columbus had a very important mission when he sailed from Palos, Spain in 1492. Columbus thought that by sailing west he would find a quicker and easier route to the East. Instead, he found the new world. Christ our savior also came with a mission. It was to save the world! As we celebrate Columbus Day on October 13th, please bring your favorite Italian dish. It must feed at least 10 people, and if possible, please bring it in a disposable container.

I also invite you to stop by the Information Center and see the 2013 Presbyterian Mission Calendar. In it you can see what we as Presbyterians are doing to share God's love with others throughout the world. Remember, we too were given a great mission. "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," -Matthew 28:19

On October 27, the entire congregation is invited to celebrate the Everything Pumpkin Sunday. This will be our early thanksgiving celebration as we thank God for his bountifulness to all. We will also thank all of the hard working volunteers that have helped with our pumpkins in the front yard. As you may know, these are Pumpkins with a Purpose, their sales benefit Heifer International. Therefore, let us all bring our favorite pumpkin recipe and share with a thankful heart! It must feed at least 10 people, and if possible, please bring it in a disposable container. Psalm 95:1-3 "Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song".

Blessings, Mercedes Zuluaga

Donations are, of course, welcome any Sunday. Charlene Rees just brought 20 bags to CFA. Next Food Sundays are October 6 and November 3.

NEWS FROM FIRST PRESBYTERIAN PRESCHOOL & KINDERGARTEN

School has gotten off to a wonderful and vibrant start at FPPK. We had our Back to School Night on September 9th. Over 95% of our families attended! We have a great mix of new families as well as old friends joining us this year. Our first week was a success as we phased the children in a little bit each day introducing them to their new classroom, teachers and friends. During that first week, the parents enjoyed coffee and treats down the hallway, as they awaited their children's happy reports of first day findings.

“GASLAND II” FILM COMING TO FPC SATURDAY, OCT. 19TH

Wonder what “hydrofracking” (a.k.a. “fracking”) is, and why it’s such a hot topic? There is a screening of GASLAND II, the informative and entertaining documentary about hydrofracking, a controversial method of extracting natural gas and oil, being presented by the non-profit, non-partisan North Jersey Public Policy Network (NJPPN) and sponsored by Food & Water Watch NJ. The film will be shown in the Chapel on Saturday, Oct. 19 at 7 p.m. (doors open at 6:30 p.m.). A post-film discussion will be held.

GASLAND II by Josh Fox argues that the gas industry’s portrayal of natural gas as a clean and safe alternative to oil is a myth and that fracked wells inevitably leak over time, contaminating water and air, hurting families, and endangering the earth’s climate with the potent greenhouse gas, methane. In addition the film looks at how the oil and gas industries are, in Fox’s words, “contaminating our democracy.”

This is part of Global Frackdown, a global effort to raise awareness and educate toward responsible public policies on hydrofracking. Admission is free, but reservations are required. An optional donation will be welcome at the show. To RSVP, email: enviro@njppn.org.

First Presbyterian Church is not affiliated with NJPPN and does not endorse the content of the film or take a position on hydrofracking. As a service to the community, FPC is providing a venue for discussion of important issues of the day.

SINGLES CONNECTION MEETS FOR PIZZA AND “GASLAND II”

Join our active Singles for a different twist. Not only enjoy pizza and soft drinks in the East Room, 6 PM, $5 contribution, but proceed on into the Chapel for the publicized movie on “fracking” in the gas industry at 7 PM. The evening should provide enlightenment and discussion for both sides of the issue facing areas close to home. RSVP to Dorothy, 568-7373, x 307 by noon on Friday, Oct. 18th.

WALK THE LABYRINTH IN THE CHAPEL

The indoor LABYRINTH on the floor in the Chapel will be open on Friday, October 25 from 4–7 p.m. and again on Sunday, October 27 from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Enter through the East Room, enjoy a candle-lit, quiet and reflective walk. The labyrinth is a 32 foot canvas patterned after the one in the Chartres Cathedral in France. It is a metaphor for the journey of life with its twists and turns, changes and challenges, but we continue on the path with hope and determination.

CROSSROADS

Come and check out the CROSSROADS contemporary worship that meets every Sunday evening at 5:30 p.m. in the Chapel. It’s casual, lively, and fun, with a great band (led by Jane Kelly Williams) and the same basic sermon as Sunday morning (with multimedia enhancements). It’s a great alternative – give it a try and invite your friends!
