From the Pastor's Desk

In his little book "Three Simple Truths," Adolf Hansen shared what he considered these truths are:

1. God is good, all the time!
2. God works for good, in everything!
3. Trust God, no matter what.

When life is good and everything is wonderful, this is easy to remember. But when my life becomes creative, it is easy for me to dwell on the challenges and forget the truth.

I have discovered this summer when I read the word daily, and I pray the word daily, and I speak the word daily, I am encouraged in my spirit as God renews my mind. This helps me not to give into the common temptations of the world (Romans 12:1-2).

I am asking God to help me walk by faith and not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7). As I read this passage, I begin to pray this passage and then I begin to speak this passage. My prayer sounds like this,

"God, today I ask you to help me walk by faith and not by sight. Today, by faith in God I know you are good! God, today you are bringing good things into my life. God, today help me to trust you no matter what!"

Trust God all the time!

*...we've all experienced meltdowns
in our lives....*

“The Meltdown” by Anne Gatts Originally posted on devotedteachersheart.com

With three kids under the age of five, a trip to the grocery store used to pose a special challenge for me. In those days we were on an especially tight budget so sticking to my list was a necessity. It used to drive me crazy that the checkout line shelves were always filled with candy, gum, and other eye-catching treats that any child would beg to have. In an effort to counteract this marketing technique, before entering the store each time I would remind my children that we would not be buying any candy or gum at the cash register line. For the most part it was a strategy that worked.

Until one day it happened.
Total And Utter Meltdown.

If you are a parent you know what I'm talking about. That dramatic, uncontrollable volcano of emotion that suddenly spews out of your child. All possibility of holding it together for one more moment has been exhausted and kicking and screaming ensues. And there you are in the middle of the IGA with two other children who look as if they're considering following suit depending on your reaction to the offender. Oh, and absolutely everyone and their brother is watching you. It's as if there's a spotlight suspended over your head and at any moment you're going to hear broadcasted over the intercom, "Meltdown in aisle two. Parental incompetence suspected." Incidentally on this particular day my daughter was wearing the cutest white rabbit fur coat. It was a hand-me-down from a friend and was by far the fanciest and most expensive coat she had ever owned. Walking in she'd looked like a perfect little princess. Sprawled on the grocery floor throwing a category 10 fit over a pack of gum she looked like an overindulged brat. I take comfort in the fact that in one way or another most parents have endured a similar scene. And we all get through it. Although sometimes parenthood can make you feel that you're just one pack of gum away from throwing your own self to the floor in a hissy fit. That day I had to make a decision and fast. Taking a deep breath and praying silently, I gingerly stepped over her and proceeded toward the door. In my head I was thinking, "What am I going to do if she doesn't follow me?" I needn't have worried. I wasn't two steps away from her before she popped up off the floor and Crisis averted.

You know, there have been times in my life when I've been that little girl in the rabbit coat thrashing around on the floor. Instead of trusting in God's plan for my life I've acted as if I've known better and then become frustrated when things haven't turned out the way I thought that they should. Instead of appreciating all the good that is in my life, I begin to focus on what is wrong. I've complained and protested. Honestly, I've been sort of a brat. And if I'm not careful I could begin to think that God has left me alone to my own misery and simply stepped over me. Not true. It's really me who has stepped away in disobedience. I am so glad that God never thinks, "What am I going to do if she doesn't follow me?" What a blessing to know that He has a plan and He's sticking to it. No matter what, He is always patiently pursuing my heart. And when I finally get over my melodramatic meltdown I realize that I was never really alone. He was just one step ahead waiting for me to pop up off the floor and follow Him.

Wheeler Mission Outreach

Join us as we are taking a group to serve dinner at Wheeler mission on Saturday, August 23! We will be meeting in the church parking lot at 5 p.m. We are limited to 10 spaces so contact Pastor Ben at ben@moorvillefumc.org or 317.775.3592 to sign-up!

Soles for Jesus A Ministry Update

I want to thank the congregation for their continued support of the Soles for Jesus shoe ministry, and special thanks to Millie for keeping our box filled! Sue and I became the Indiana representatives for SFJ last fall, and have been active in asking other churches to host shoe drives, and have spoken at several area churches. To date in 2014, FUMC has collected nearly 600 pair of shoes for SFJ, and combined Indy-area churches have collected nearly 3,000 Pair! To date in 2014, SFJ has shipped 4 ocean containers (approx...

30,000 Pair) of shoes to Africa; specifically Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Tanzania, and the latest container to Kenya.

Please remember to rubber band each pair together, and please pray about contributing financially to this Not for Profit, to help with shipping costs. To learn more, visit www.solesforjesus.org, and sign up for their monthly newsletter. Blessings,

Steve and Sue Klinger

Open to Caring

Most people are much more open to giving care than to receiving it. When a person is giving care, they are in a position of strength, stability, and authority. When a person is receiving care they are acknowledging weakness, insecurity and vulnerability. As a result of these preconceived notions there are countless people who could benefit from a Christian friend who would listen and care for them, but instead they tough it out on their own. They remain the strong silent type, or wear a smile across a face that is holding back a flood of tears. To ask for help is to admit weakness. To show weakness is to admit inferiority. BUT God did not create us to be independent. We are created to be interdependent, God's Word is clear on this from Genesis 2:18, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him," all the way through the more than 50 verses in the New Testament which admonishes us to "love one another," "build up one another," "encourage one another" and "pray for one another". This "one another" wording gives these verses a reciprocal meaning. We are to allow other people to love, encourage, build up and pray for us! Suffering alone is not God's intent for us. Jesus promises, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28 We can receive this promised rest when we turn to one another for comfort and help.

If you find yourself now or in the future facing difficulties in life, don't succumb to the lie of satan and remain suffering alone. Take the courageous step of seeking help. Our Stephen Ministry offers the opportunity for a very confidential relationship with someone who will listen to you and provide you with the care and encouragement you need, while Christ works inside to bring rest to your weary, burdened heart.

For more information on Stephen Ministry please contact, Rev. Dennis, Dale DePoy or Cathy Mosier

Don't put it off any longer! Start cleaning out those garages, kitchen cabinets, jewelry boxes and other secret places you have things stored and donate those unwanted items to the UMW Rummage Sale to be held on Saturday, September 13th.

Sorry, but we are unable to accept any clothing, large exercise equipment, TV's, computers or computer screens and big furniture.

Once again we will be asking for your help on September 11th and 12th in sorting and pricing items for the Rummage Sale. More information will be shared in August bulletins.

So get busy and once again we thank you for supporting the UMW.

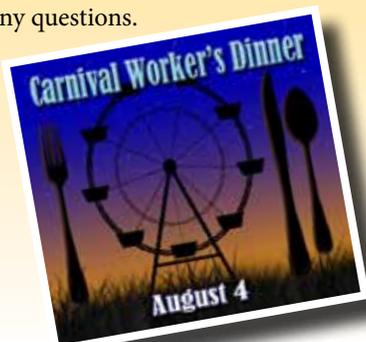

Hospitality Training

Come and join our Hospitality Team! We believe that showing radical hospitality to our guests on Sunday mornings is a great way to get involved and to have an eternal impact on the lives of others! If you are a current greeter or would like to get involved, come join us for a brief training meeting on Sunday, August 10th at 12:15pm in the worship center! For more info contact Pastor Ben at ben@mooresvillefumc.org or 317.775.3592.

Carnival Worker's Dinner

Our Church will be hosting the annual Carnival Worker's dinner on Monday, August 4. What's this you ask? Our congregation provides a sit down dinner for the men and women who work the Old Settler's carnival rides and games. How can you help? Sign up to set-up, clean-up or donate one of the meal items listed on the sign-up sheet located on the bulletin board outside Fellowship Hall. You can talk to Kim Webster @ 834-2139 or Lydia Rychtarczyk @ 834-1787 if you have any questions.

Live Your Faith to Affect Change
by Melanie Elo

Each year following the close of Ben's Annual Soccer Camp we try to review the week and thank all those who have blessed us in ways great and small. If you were able to stop by during the week you saw the evidence of God's willingness to bless what we do in His name in abundance! We continue to see God providing in ways we hadn't even thought of, laying the foundation for a successful camp for years to come.

This is our chance to THANK YOU, however, for God has worked through YOU to do amazing things! If you're a parent who sent your child or volunteered your time, THANK YOU! If you owned a business or organization that sponsored camp, sponsored a child, donated items for the raffle or food to feed our staff, THANK YOU! If you housed our coaches, baked brownies or helped set up or clean up each day, THANK YOU. If you were with us on Set Up Day, June 13th hanging banners, putting the player packets together, etc THANK YOU! While we can't thank everyone personally, we will do our best to paint you a picture. It's important to us that you feel a part of all you helped achieve. We invite you to visit Ben's website in the coming weeks to see pictures of the week including Ben's World Cup on Friday.

In 2014:

- Over $20,000 was raised to fund the goals of Ben's Memorial Fund
- 149 campers; another new record
- $9,700 raised from sponsors

- 7 scholarships made it possible for well deserving kids to attend camp
- 15 terrific Coaches~10 from colleges around the US including 2 former Men's US National Team players
- Started each day with prayer and a 'Ben Story' that shared a living example of character, leadership, respect, kindness and determination in action.
- Blessed with the donation of 2 sets of Goals and several coolers from the Carmel United Soccer Club (Ben's former club) in support of Ben's Camp for years to come. These will be used to benefit the MHS Soccer Program as well

We hope you had the opportunity to stop by during the week. Words really don't describe it in its entirety. I'll leave you with a quote from a parent of one of our campers:

"I wanted to tell you that yesterday our daughter had an amazing wonderful day! She was so happy! She said she learned more in one day then she did in an entire week at the ___ ___ camp. Also I wanted to thank you for making her feel so welcome yesterday morning. She felt important! Consider us Camp Elo participants until she gets too old!"

Camp has taken on a life of its own! We're so grateful that you find our purpose worthy of your many gifts. May God bless you and protect you as we look toward next year!

Praying the Scriptures

by Cathy Mosier

Psalm 1 (insert a loved one's name in the blanks)

How blessed, _____, you will be because you do not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the path of sinners, nor do you sit in the seat of scoffers. But as your parents we have seen you, _____, delight in the law of the Lord. You, _____, have been thinking about His law day and night. May God make you, _____, like a tree firmly planted by streams of water. May God allow you, _____, to grow and bear fruit in His season and your life, _____, will not wither and whatever you, _____, shall do, it will prosper!

Did you know that each Tuesday morning at 7:30 in our Prayer Chapel a group of believers gathers and carries your private individual prayer requests to our Father's throne in prayer? We pray, out loud, for each request, asking Our Loving Father God to provide comfort, love and peace. This group meets each Tuesday morning rain or shine, sun or snow throughout the entire year.

Did you know that each week a group of Prayer Warriors receives your prayer needs via email and individually carries those requests to our Almighty Father in Heaven? They pray daily for those needs that have been shared using our bulletin tear off sheet. These needs are shared only between the Prayer Warrior and our Father in Heaven.

Did you know there is another group of silent servants who each week write cards of encouragement, love and care for those whose names are on our prayer lists? They are the very hands of Jesus Christ bringing His love and compassion to broken people within our congregation.

Just like those books that offer to put your child into the story, God includes you, your children, and your loved ones in His story of love and Everlasting Life. Being in God's story is how we pray scripture over our children and loved ones.

Prayer is not an opportunity to gossip about another's situation. Prayer is a time to meet quietly in our "closet" with Jesus Christ, Our Loving Father God and the Holy Spirit comforter and bring the needs of a brother or sister in Christ to their attention. We do not use fancy words, or stilted phrases :) Rather, we speak as little children asking our Abba Father - "daddy" - to help us.

If you would like to join this vibrant group of quiet servants contact Cathy Mosier.

Blood Drive on August 24

First UMC is sponsoring a blood drive on Sunday, August 24, in the Fellowship Hall from 9:00AM to 1:00PM, so please stop by the table in the hallway outside the Narthex in between worship services in August to sign up to give blood and make cookies. Your gift of blood means everything to the person who needs it. You can give if you are 16 years old but you need parental/guardian consent form to give blood. Also, you can sign-up online at www.donorpoint.org. For more information, please contact Cole Quyle, 821-0587.

Mommy & Me

Goal & Objectives

Are you interested in an activity for your child with an opportunity to be with like-minded Moms for an enjoyable, education experience? You will:

VBS Thanks for Help

Thanks to all the volunteers that helped with Vacation Bible School. Whether you made a dinner, walked with the children, helped in a rotation or told a lesson, you did a great job making our 2014 VBS a success. The children of our Church and community are very blessed the way our congregation support this very important ministry! We have awesome volunteers! Thank you again – the Children's Ministry Team.

Summer Lunch THANKS

Thanks go out to all that volunteered their Wednesday morning to help assemble summer lunches. Throughout the summer we distributed anywhere from 130 – 225 lunches to the children of our community. Thanks and praise to our congregation for their support and donations of lunch staples. Each week we would fill lunch bags with water, applesauce, chips, sandwiches and when we returned the following each our supplies were replenished by your generosity. Please know that you have made a difference in a child's life. Again, we are so thankful for your donations – Karalee Stinson, Lydia Rychtarczyk and the Children's Ministry Team

5th-6th Grade Lock-In

The 5th & 6th grade youth will be having their annual Back To School Lock-in on Friday, August 8th at 6pm. Bring your Bible, a sleeping bag and a friend! We will eat junk food, play scary games in the dark and have a great time. Kids can be picked up Saturday morning at 9am.

Please check the youth web site at <http://mfumcyouth.weebly.com> for all the information about Youth Ministry here at Mooresville 1st United Methodist Church. If you have any questions please contact Dan Herron at dherron59@gmail.com.

Take the "Truth Challenge"

Bryan Vickery, Youth Director

We say all the time that God's Word transforms us, but do we live like it?

Do we take the time to crack the pages of THE Book?

16. That's how many students spent the last 6 months developing the habit of daily devotions. 16. That's how many hearts and minds God planted seeds of His Word in over the last half year. 16. That's how many students completed our first Truth Challenge! Their reward: a trip to Cedar Point, roller coaster heaven, in Sandusky, Ohio. And we're off and running on the next Truth Challenge already. Pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to teach them and remind them of the truth of God's Holy Word this semester (John 14:26). More than that, pray that students will recognize the Bible as our ultimate SOURCE of truth.

Teens live in a culture that screams at them to do whatever seems right in their own eyes. That's not unlike a time in the Old Testament known as the period of the Judges. "In those days Israel had no king; all the people did whatever seemed right in their own eyes" (Judges 21:25). In August, we'll be reminding students that we DO have a King, and His name is Jesus. We'll be reminding students to do not what seems right in their own eyes, but what the Bible says is right in God's eyes.

Fall Retreat @ Camp Rivervale

Parents! Please Mark Your Calendar!

Fall Retreat will be at Camp Rivervale in Mitchell, Indiana October 10-12 (Friday - Sunday). We will meet at the church at 6pm on Friday, and we'll return to the church NO LATER THAN 2pm (exact return time TBD). -Bryan

Financial Peace University

Walk to Emmaus

We all need a plan for our money. Financial Peace University (FPU) is that plan! This plan will show you how to get rid of debt, manage your money, spend and save wisely, and much more!

Preview for this class is Wednesday, September 3, at 6:30 PM. Classes begin Wednesday, September 10. Led by Dave Browning, you can contact him for more information: dave.browning@gmail.com

The Walk to Emmaus is a 72-hour spiritual renewal that you do once in a lifetime. The name is based on a section of Luke 24 in which pilgrims on their way to Emmaus were joined by the risen Christ. The Indianapolis Area Emmaus Community is sponsoring two more walks in 2014: a men's walk Sept. 11-14 and a women's walk Sept. 25-28. There are still openings for those who would like to attend. If you are interested or want more information, go to this website: <http://indyemmaus.org> or contact John Burnell, Registrar, at (317) 882-4240.

Serving Your Sweet Spot

Christ came that we may have an abundant, full life (John 10:10). One of the spiritual disciplines we need to exercise in order to experience a life fulfilled in Christ, is to be active in our ministry. Below is a worksheet that can help you discover your gifts and talents, then guided by your results, find a ministry where you can use them to serve others.

Passions

- Examples:
- | | | | | |
|--------------|----------------|-----------------|-----------------|----------------------|
| teaching | family | animals | traveling | helping others |
| learning | politics | gardening | watching sports | leading |
| business | health/fitness | writing | care giving | religion |
| parenting | spirituality | wood working | fashion | sharing your faith |
| children | nature | faith formation | creating | meeting others |
| teenagers | technology | science | history | cooking/eating |
| young adults | playing sports | art | organizing | science |
| the elderly | movies/TV | music | reading | environmental issues |

What do you thoroughly enjoy doing (you'll keep doing it even if you never get paid to do so)?

What gets your blood boiling and your temperature rising?

Experiences (good and bad)

- Examples:
- | | | | | |
|----------------------|-------------------|---------------------------------|-------------|------------|
| caring for children | marriage | divorce | cancer | abuse |
| criminal conviction | drug addiction | death of a child | poverty | rebellion |
| extended illness | rough childhood | rocky adolescence | rejection | leadership |
| bookkeeping | organizing | starting a business or ministry | adoption | bankruptcy |
| physical issues | mental issues | emotional issues | loss of job | management |
| administration | moving | working with your hands | writing | painting |
| planning projects | death of a spouse | photography/videography | cooking | coaching |
| working on computers | | | | |

Because of a few years or more of experience, I know how to: _____

My hobbies are: _____

From tough situations, heartache, and loss I've learned: _____

Gifts (talents, abilities, spiritual gifts,...)

- Examples:
- | | | | | |
|----------------|-------------|-----------------|------------|---------------------------------|
| organizing | teaching | intelligence | helping | help teams cooperate |
| athletics | writing | motivational | assembling | clear understanding of God |
| leading | wisdom | musician | listening | physical stamina |
| dedication | outgoing | encouraging | faith | effective communicator |
| painting | singer | problem solving | empathy | share prophetic words from God |
| prayer warrior | care giving | building things | creativity | discernment between good & evil |
| miracle worker | carpentry | | cooking | healing the hurting |

What comes easily, naturally, or supernaturally for you?
