

Johnson Group Home is a residential therapy facility for girls ages 12-17 that provides individual group, and family counseling for the residents.

The girls are referred to this program because of family conflict, abuse, school truancy, or emotional needs.

The home is part of Child and Family Services of Blount County.