The Message—Pastor Paul Purdue

Step One- A daily routine! What spiritual weights and burdens are you packing around every day? Hebrews 12:1-3 implores us to lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily entangles us! A routine of daily spiritual check-ins with God allows the Holy Spirit to unload our burdens, guilt, and needless spiritual sidetracks! We may feel too busy for a daily quiet time with God, but when we lay aside sin’s entangling misdirection, our burdens grow much lighter. Jesus beckons us to exchange our loads for his easier regime! “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light” (Matthew 11:28-30). Without things like anger, bitterness, covet-ness, fear or phoniness, our souls find less distraction and more time to live! Let us not neglect our spiritual health, let us breathe in the renewing love of God in daily prayer, praise and study.

Step Two- Worshiping and imitating Jesus. Worship resets our soul. Worship realigns our week. Worship comes as a new beginning, grounding us within the love of God. Worship reminds us that we belong to God, came from God, and will return to God. Worship retunes us to Heaven’s rhythms and methods. Jesus said, “Worship the Lord your God and serve God alone” (Matthew 4:1). Worship and imitating Jesus go together- they come as a package deal. Jesus is not just our savior to be praised, but our example to follow. If we love God- then we serve God. Our savior is our example- our model- our goal. Worship challenges us, calling us upwards towards faith, hope and love.

Step Three- Our Team seeks to save the world. The church does not exist to meet our needs, but to change us. Our mission is to battle hell (evil, injustice, and oppression) and save the world by lovingly offering Christ’s forgiveness to everyone, with humility, love and service to strangers and neighbors. “I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it” (Matthew 16:17-19). If we sit on the sidelines in comfortable stadium chairs throwing up our hands in praise or lamenting, how are we part of God’s struggle to bring about “on earth as in heaven”? We must join our church teammates by getting into the game with our prayers, presence, gifts, service, witness and lives. Let us offer Christ to a broken world.

This Sunday we consider Step Four- “Beyond Baby Formula” (1 Corinthians 3 and Hebrews 5-6). The prevailing patterns of church as a place to comfort us are out of line with the call of Christ. We have reduced salvation to simply a ticket to the heavenly show, not a workout regime for this life. Have we forgotten that Jesus stands at life’s finishing line handing out the medals (Romans 2:16)? Yes, grace covers our sins, but I want to do my best. I want to run in such a way as to win the prize! Will we strive so that Jesus might say, “Well done, good and faithful servant”, enter into the championship celebration feast? (Matthew 25:21)

*Grace and Love,
Pastor Paul*

First Light & Outreach Ministry—Jeff Harrison

Hey Everyone,

This week I spoke with a church member about joining a Life Group. I was explaining that the groups discuss the past week’s sermon, what it means and what they thought. They asked, "What if I didn't like the sermon?" I said, "That will probably be a great discussion!" Pastor Paul shared just this past Sunday that Theological Agreement isn't necessary for unity. That's what Life Groups are all about. We discuss, we agree, we disagree, we grow. Above everything, we love one another. Again, I invite you to join a Life Group. Contact me with any questions or how to sign up.

*In Christ,
Jeff*

Youth Ministry—Theresa Johnson

This Friday over 30 youth and adult leaders will go to the Opryland Hotel for the Tennessee Conference Warmth in Winter youth conference. Please keep us in your prayers as we go to worship, learn, and draw closer to God and each other. We will have a mandatory parents’ meeting about Warmth in Winter this Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. immediately after youth group. Everyone going must attend the meeting. We will go over details about the weekend then.

I also encourage everyone to join our new church text/email application if you have not yet. Simply text the word “youth” to the number 931-452-4747 and fill out your name and other contact info when prompted. This is one of the primary tools we use for communication in youth ministry.

We had a great meeting about confirmation Sunday night. If you are interested in experiencing this wonderful journey more deeply reflecting on the Christian faith and United Methodist beliefs, please let me know. We would love to have you join us. Session 1 will kick off Sunday, February 5th from 2-4 p.m. in the confirmation Sunday school room (next to the middle school Sunday school room) in the Family Activity Center.

Finally, next week we begin a new Wednesday night series on world religions. We’ll have sessions on Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Islam, and think about what it means to be a Christian in our pluralistic society. We’ll be using the book “Burst: Topics for Today’s Teens-World Religions” by Danny Rhodes.

I hope everyone has a blessed week!

*Peace in Christ,
Theresa*

Mission Moment—Holt Cason

Over the past 24 years that I have been involved with VIM teams, some have said they would like to go on a mission trip but; the timing is not right, the trips are too long, I am too old, there is nothing I can do. In response to these comments, there are several "short" trips that are available to do things such as: work in a vision clinic, perform health related activities (glucose screening, blood pressure screening and dental health care training), conduct a Bible School, or teach sewing. In John 13, Jesus washed the feet of the disciples to teach them about loving others through service. Missions is all about servanthood.

Trustees—Bill Bates

The Trustees would like to convert room 207 in the Sanctuary Building into more usable space. In the past it was known as the Theatre Room with theatre type seats. For some time now, the room has not been used. We are soliciting suggestions as to how this space (room) might be better used. Please submit ideas or suggestions to the Church Office or a Trustee. Thanks.

Thank you for all of the donations of hygiene products for the food pantry. This month we are collecting dishwashing soap. Next month we will collect laundry detergent.

There will be no Third Monday in January because of the installation meeting that we had last Thursday. See you in February.

Thanks, Martha Ervin

As of January 14th, the Sunday School Sock Challenge has collected over 100 pairs of socks for the Henry Center. The sock challenge will continue through Sunday, January 29th. February's Sunday School Challenge will be new underwear for the Henry Center. All sizes and all genders needed - kids to adult sizes needed. If you are not in a Sunday School Class and would like to contribute, you can always drop off your items in the large bin located in the small chapel anytime during the week that the church office is open.
