

The Message—Pastor Rickey Wade

Repentance II

As noted last week, repentance involves both the desire for repentance and actual repentance. The desire for repentance is connected most closely to the notion of experiencing sorrow over our sin, and wishing things could be different. Actual repentance is the act of making a change in one’s life. It is changing from one way of living to a new or different way of living. As this discussion relates to Christian faith, repentance is turning from our old way to the Way of Christ.

It is tempting to think of repentance as an act of the will. That is, “I will decide to do this new thing in my life,” and then set about making it happen. An example of such thinking could follow along these lines: A person comes to the realization that his life is a mess. His marriage is in trouble. He drinks too much. Furthermore, he is not a good father. The plan, he thinks, is to get himself and his family back in church; he will decide to live right! This is noble, but it is as likely to fail as succeed. He may go to church for a while. Then he may lose interest, and little by little drift back to where he started.

He may blame his lack of interest in church on the preacher, or on the congregation. The excuses vary widely. The preacher is boring, not on fire enough, on fire too much, or so on. The congregation is not active enough, too active, not friendly, too meddlesome, and on this list goes. Actually, the man loses interest because actual repentance never took place. Repentance is not something we make happen through our will; it is something we allow God to do by surrendering our will.

You see, the power to change me does not reside within me! The power to change me resides only with God! Therefore, if real change is to take place in my life, I must give my will over to God. The Holy Spirit at work in a person’s heart brings about real and lasting change. You and I can make changes in our life for a time, but we run out of interest or energy after a while. When this happens, life goes back to the way it was. However, the Holy Spirit does not lose interest, or energy.

Next week I will talk more about surrender to God, the work of the Holy Spirit, and the joy of real change.

*God bless,
Brother Rickey*

Beersheba

Our outing to see “Sister Act” and eating at Shoney’s was a delightful experience. Again Holt did a terrific job of getting us there and back safely. We had several new faces with us and I do expect to see some of them on future trips. Please be advised that you are more than welcome to invite your family and friends to join us. Our policy is first come first served. Speaking of that, we have seating for 36 for our trip to Beersheba on Thursday, November 30th. Twenty-five (25) people have already signed up to go, that leaves only 11 seats on our van and bus. The cost is $20.00 per person and that includes your lunch and transportation. We will leave the church at 8:30 a.m. The activities start at 10 a.m. with coffee and light refreshments. We should be back in the FAC parking lot by 3:30 p.m. or before.

Several people have asked about our church planning a trip to the Ark Encounter and the Creation Museum for next year. I need some input from you. This will require some careful advanced planning and commitment on the part of those who would like to go. I’m thinking tour bus! In that case, we will need at least 40 people to travel with us. This will be a 5 day 4 night trip sometime in late March or early April. Approximate cost is $500.00 {all inclusive}.

Please check our prayer list in the newsletter and on the church’s white board outside the office. Help the staff stay in touch! If you have knowledge of any of our Senior Adult Members who would like to be remembered in prayer or would like a visit from our pastoral staff, please do not hesitate to let us know. Also, we acknowledge birthdays of Senior Adult Members weekly in the newsletter; if you would like to be added to the list give me a call (Esther: 455-5434).

First Light & Outreach Ministry—Jeff Harrison

Hey Everyone,

Have you noticed the last couple of weeks at First Light? It's been really full! That's a great thing! Here are a couple of things I have been thinking about. Do you know everyone that attends First Light? I don't. I wish I did. If you see someone you don't know, make a point to introduce yourself and get to know them. Maybe they are new, maybe they have been coming forever. If you meet a new person, would you invite them to sit with you? Would you take them to Sunday School with you? We want to be as welcoming as possible so that people can experience God and hear the truth of His word.

*In Christ,
Jeff*

Missions Moment—Holt Cason

It is not too early to begin to think about being a part of a Volunteers In Mission team in 2018. For those that may be interested, there is an Ali Helms Memorial Mission Scholarship that is available. This scholarship is for first time missionaries that are members of FUMC Tullahoma. Additionally, the Missions Committee will consider awarding a scholarship based on financial hardship. If you are interested in applying for a scholarship, please contact Holt Cason at 931-455-3139.

Children's Ministry—Julie Uehlein

What a great turnout we had for Sunday School and our annual Children's Ministry photo. The kiddos are precious!!

If you have not received a calendar of events, please see me. Also, to receive texts and emails concerning our Children's Ministry, text CHILDREN to 452-4747 then fill out the info sent back to you. It will take you 30 seconds.

On Sunday during Sunday School, we will be giving out our new Children's Ministry bags and explaining to the children how our new attendance, good deed, etc... program will work. Look for a note to go home with your child.

We have three sign-ups going on: 1) teamKID participants, 2) Wednesday mission opportunities at Dossett in September and November and, 3) The Painted House on November 5th. These sign-ups are on the bulletin board in the Children's hallway.

I always welcome your feedback and look forward to hearing from our parents.

WHAT WE'RE TEACHING (Youth Group)

You've probably had an experience or two that has taught you the power of a good friendship and the danger of a destructive one. This is never more true than during the teenage years, when teenagers are the most susceptible they'll ever be to the influence of their peers. During this series we'll be discussing how to choose our friends wisely, exploring the qualities of a healthy friendship, encouraging students to build friendships with wise people, and helping them see Jesus as their best and truest friend.
