

The Message—Pastor Rickey Wade

Friends,

My prayer is that you are enjoying a blessed Advent. The expectation of Christ’s coming seems to grow moment by moment. No matter how many times I travel through this time of Advent-Christmas-Epiphany, the wonder and awe of all that God has done, is doing, and will do amazes me. May such wonder also be yours.

I would like to use my newsletter column this week to share with you a bit of how we are changing our newsletter. Our current newsletter is normally four pages and comes your way each week. Beginning in January 2018, our newsletter will be twelve pages and come your way once a month. I realize that news of this change may leave some of you feeling that you will miss out – that is the opposite of our intent. My hope is that a monthly newsletter will provide you with more information, not less! In the new edition, each ministry area will have a full page to share information, ideas, and announcements of upcoming events for the month. This new addition will have room to share news of the ministries going on at the Henry Center, Dossett Chapel, and Partners for Healing. We will also be adding a space for stewardship such that you can see how we are participating in the work of God with our prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness. The stewardship area will include our attendance and financial statistics as a way of communicating overall congregational health. We are also planning an improved calendar that will keep you on top of events in the church, and a space that keeps you in touch with the volunteer possibilities around the church. Finally, we will have a space for Bible games, word searches, Sudoku, and the like. My prayer is that our new edition will be your “one stop shopping” for all that is going on around the church and allow you time to plan your participation.

Allow me to say just a bit more about communication throughout the church. Communication is always the most important aspect of any organization, and it is also one of the most difficult things to do well. In an attempt to communicate well, we are organizing to use the following methods to keep you informed of the information you need to be most productive in your work for Christ. As noted above, our monthly newsletter will be our main packet of information. It will contain inspiration, information, and invitation to follow Christ. The weekly bulletin will not only lead us through worship each Sunday, it will be a follow up to the newsletter with happenings and events for the week. We will begin emailing or mailing the bulletin weekly to those who are unable to attend on Sundays, to provide them the needed weekly updates and connections. We will communicate with email, text, and phone tree to provide updates, schedule changes, etc. as needed, and in the event of needs such as special announcements or deaths. Finally, we will provide much of the same information on our website and Facebook page such that you can find what you need from your phone or computer most any time and any place. Please note, we will not post financial information and the like on the website or Facebook – some information is only pertinent to us.

Finally, any information you would like included in the monthly newsletter must be in the office by the 20th of each month. We plan to publish the newsletter in the last week of each month, therefore ensuring you have what you need before the new month begins. In addition, we ask that you have any bulletin information in the office by Tuesday. My goal is to put a system in place that connects you to Christ, provides the information you need, and allows you to find what you need from a single source, and yet in many places.

*God bless,
Pastor Rickey*

You will receive your January newsletter at the end of December. Check the Senior Adult Bulletin Board and social media weekly for updates, photos and additional information that appears in newsletter. You can always call me if you have questions about Senior Adult events. It would be a good idea to keep up with your monthly newsletters so you will know what's going on in your church. If you have important dates that you wish to see published in the newsletter or a human interest story to share, just contact me. I think you will enjoy the monthly newsletter once you get use to the change.*

Did you ring a bell for the Salvation Army Fundraiser? Thank you if you did and may God continue to bless you. It was an hour well spent. One lady even shared her personal story with us about how the Salvation Army made a difference in her life when she was a child. As our Christmas season progresses, look for ways to bless others and honor our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Merry Christmas to each of you!

Missions Moment—Holt Cason

In recent years, Tullahoma FUMC has sent Volunteers in Mission teams to countries in Europe, Central America, and the Caribbean. While the countries are vastly different in culture and language, we still worship the one true God and celebrate the birth of our Savior at this time of the year. From the Missions teams and the countries we have served, we wish each of you a Merry Christmas.

Get yourself a little something, like the book "The Grown-Up's Guide to Teenage Humans," by Josh Shipp. And if you've got $10 more, you might always want to grab Josh's book "The Teen's Guide to World Domination" for your teenager. Have a blessed Christmas season!

Do you have a desire to connect with others who are wanting to grow in their faith? We have an opportunity to do just that through our LIFEgroup ministry! Each week people from FUMC meet in homes all over Tullahoma and Estill Springs for good food, conversation around the Sermon, and a time of prayer. If you have not joined a LIFEgroup, please contact Kris Roberts for more information at 931-581-2310.

First Light & Outreach Ministry—Jeff Harrison

Hey Everyone,

I know December has already been a crazy month for some of you. It seems like the month starts like a pistol being shot at the beginning of a race and it's full speed ahead until New Years. One of the things I am about to accomplish is reading through the whole bible in a year! I am super proud that I have stuck with it, doing a little each day, and I have about three weeks left. I used the YouVersion app on my phone and followed the Bible in a Year reading plan. I have learned a lot this year through reading through the whole bible. I am striving to hide God's word in my heart and I want you to do so as well.

Sunday School Challenge

December's challenge is gently used toboggans and gloves for the Henry Center Clothes Closet. They are also in need of winter coats for children ages pre-K through elementary school. These items can be left in the chapel or the Hope Sunday School Class in the main building. Thank you for your generous giving and let us continue to serve our neighbors.
