I love the New Year! I love the symbolic starting over it provides. I know that at any time during the year I can make resolutions and start anew, yet the New Year seems to command it. A New Year is the time to begin anew, to start over, with energy and resolve. What if we applied this new beginning to the areas of our commitments to the church? Our resolution could look something like this:

Did you know that our church has a preschool program that has been housed at FUMCT for more than 40 years? Did you know that Joann Williams has been a teacher at Kiddie Kollege for 40 years and was director of the program for 24 years? Did you know that Kiddie Kollege expanded its hours in the fall? The time the students attend increased from 4 to 5 hours. Did you know that Kiddie Kollege students have weekly music classes with Mandy Smith, our Director of Children’s Music Ministries and weekly chapel lessons in the sanctuary? Did you know that Kiddie Kollege uses The Creative Curriculum? Our teachers receive training on and maintain continuing education credits on the curriculum from the University of Alabama’s Child Development Resource Center.

If you or someone you know is looking for a preschool that provides intellectual, spiritual, emotional and physical growth opportunities for children in a loving, Christian environment, please tell them about Kiddie Kollege. Registration for the 2015-16 school year begins in January.

- January 20-30 • Registration is open for current Kiddie Kollege families
- February 2-6 • Registration is open for members of FUMCT
- February 9-13 • Registration is open to the public

A registration fee of $50 is required with each registration form. For forms and more information, contact Crystal Hollyhand, Director of Kiddie Kollege, at 205.345.7261, ext. 24 or kiddiekollege@fumct.org.

PRAYERS
- Start a prayer journal or gratitude journal; Set aside 10 minutes at the beginning and ending of each day to pray; Use the hymnal daily as a prayer guide; Use ACTS to guide my prayers (Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication).

PRESENCE
- Attend worship one Sunday more per month than you did last year; Find or start a small group; Once a month attend both the Bridge and Traditions.

GIFTS
- Take a step towards, to or beyond the tithe; Find or start a small group; Take the year to correct past financial errors so you can give more in 2016.

SERVICE
- Try something new!; Do one thing that takes you out of your comfort zone; Do something to serve others that you really enjoy!

WITNESS
- Create an atmosphere of welcome and inclusion around you in worship; Invite, invite, invite, invite; Share around the Sunday family dinner table something meaningful from worship.

These are only suggestions. Be creative and come up with your own!

Giving the Lord of Love! If you are interested in joining us and willing to give your time and talent in service, contact me at jame@fumct.org or 205.345.7261, ext. 27.

I have always loved the text to this one choir anthem that we sing on Music and Worship Dedication Sunday. It isWithin These Walls by Stephen Caracciolo and it reads like this:

Within these walls, the sound of praises, radiant alleluias rise. Ceaseless prayer and hymn ascending, sweet as incense to the skies. Holy, holy, holy God, all glory. Saints on earth and saints above join to bless the Lord of Love. Within these walls, a meal for sharing, tender alleluias rise. Bread and wine for celebration, hymns to praise the Crucified. Holy, holy, holy God, all glory. Saints on earth and saints above join to share the feast of love. Within these walls, a faith confessing, joyful alleluias rise. Songs of hope and revelation, God’s own word and sign inspire. Holy, holy, holy God, all glory. Saints on earth and saints above speak of promise, sing of love. Within these walls, yet far beyond all, wondrous alleluias rise. Word and song and all creation praise the Son of God, Most High! Holy, holy, holy God, all glory. Saints on earth and saints above join to bless the Lord of Love.

If God gave you the gift of music and song, what better way to use it than in service of His church in worship, blessing the Lord of Love! If you are interested in joining us and willing to give your time and talent in service, contact me at jame@fumct.org or 205.345.7261, ext. 27.

FROM ETHELYN

The Music Ministry of FUMCT has been growing for years now, including more people into a fellowship that celebrates the love of God through song and ministers not only to our congregation in worship, but also ministers to the hearts and needs of one another. If you have the gift of music and the love of singing, will you consider giving your time and talent to your church in service?

The Adult Chancel Choir and Adult Handbell Choir welcomes new members all throughout the year, but the start of a new calendar year is always a good time to get started! Different people of a wide range of ages, walks of life, and abilities all participate in the Music Ministry of FUMCT. What we all share is a love for music and a willingness to serve.

I have always loved the text to this one choir anthem that we sing on Music and Worship Dedication Sunday. It isWithin These Walls by Stephen Caracciolo and it reads like this:

Within these walls, the sound of praises, radiant alleluias rise. Ceaseless prayer and hymn ascending, sweet as incense to the skies. Holy, holy, holy God, all glory. CHILDREN’S WORSHIP ARTS
A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

You don’t want your child to miss out on the unique cultural experience that our Worship Arts program will be a part of in conjunction with the Global Impact Celebration (GIC) in February. Children in KWA & Psalm 150 will be preparing to sing with the Children of the World Choir during GIC activities, Feb. 11-15. Check out a video of them at www.youtube.com/user/thchildrenoftheworld.

WORSHIP ARTS
Worship Arts will resume Wednesday, Jan. 7 from 6:00-7:00 PM. All children ages 3-6th grade are encouraged to participate in their age appropriate Worship Arts program each Wednesday night. Contact Mandy Smith mandyloo_38869@yahoo.com to find out more about this wonderful opportunity for the children of our church.

SOULED OUT SUNDAYS S.O.S.
Souled Out Sundays will resume Sunday, Jan. 11. Each Sunday afternoon, 4th and 5th graders are encouraged to participate in S.O.S.—it's a time of fun and learning, with relationship building as its main focus. Leslie & Ryan send out weekly emails with information about S.O.S., so be sure they have your correct email address. Contact them at souledout@fumct.org.

KWA & PSALM 150 IN LESSONS & CAROLS
KWA and Psalm 150 helped lead worship during Lessons & Carols in the Traditions worship service on Dec. 14. Check out a video of them at www.youtube.com/user/thchildrenoftheworld.

STARRY NIGHT, NOISY NIGHT
In Starry Night, Noisy Night, the story of Jesus being born in Bethlehem was told by our Children’s Worship Arts program on Dec. 3. The musical featured the animals in the stable as they shared their account of the night our Savior was born. Our preschoolers stole the show as the bright, noisy stars! Many thanks to Mandy Smith, our Director of Children’s Music Ministries, for all her efforts to teach our children how to praise our Lord through the joy of music. Thanks also to Susan Goode, Glenn Sharp, Alex Woods, Lily Tseng, Krystal Stark, Lauren Goldfuss, Michael Stanley & Blake Tidwell for helping to make it a special evening for everyone.

SOULED OUT BOWLING PARTY
Souled Out enjoyed an afternoon of bowling and fellowship on December 14 to celebrate the Christmas season.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

The ministries of Congregational Care are available for all members of our church family—no matter how old you are, how long you have been a member of our church, or whether you participate in Traditions or The Bridge worship. We are here to celebrate life’s joys with you and to offer support to you and your family when life is tough. But—we can’t be there for you if we don’t know what’s going on in your life. Please contact me at susank@fumct.org so we can provide support to you.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
The ministries of Congregational Care are seeking volunteers for the Card Care Team, the Hospital Visitation Team, the Nursing Home/Retirement Home Visitation Team, and the Bereavement Team. Please contact Susan Kizziah at susank@fumct.org if you are interested in finding out how you can provide much-needed care to our church family.

CARD CARE TEAM ASSIGNMENTS
Cards will be available to pick up Sunday, Jan. 11. Please notify Susan Kizziah at susank@fumct.org if you are unable to complete card assignments this month. (Cards are located in the basket on the Receptionist’s Desk in the Church Office).

SOUP SISTERS
Soup Sisters, a frozen food ministry, will begin as a new congregational care ministry in February 2015. Soup Sisters (Broth Brothers are welcome!) will prepare and freeze meals which will be taken to members of our congregation during times of joy, sickness, sorrow, and other times of need.

We would love to have several small groups of six to eight women and/or men volunteer to gather together on a monthly or bi-monthly basis to cook, share a meal, and freeze meals that will be used to nourish others.

According to one of my favorite authors, Shauna Niequist, “The impulse to feed is innate. Food is a language of care, the thing we do when traditional language fails us, when we don’t know what to say, when there are no words to say. And food is what we offer in celebration…” It’s the thing that connects us, that bears our traditions…” Come together in groups for fellowship and service—be the hands of Christ as you gather to meet needs of others.

For more information, contact Susan Kizziah susank@fumct.org.

STEPHEN MINISTRY COMING TO FUMCT!
Stephen Ministry is a one-to-one lay caring ministry. Congregations equip and empower lay caregivers-called Stephen Ministers—to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting. Stephen Ministers usually provide care to one person at a time, meeting with that person once a week for about an hour. Care is provided to people struggling through a difficult time in life—individuals experiencing grief, divorce, job loss, chronic or terminal illness, or some other life crisis.

Stephen Ministry is found in congregations in more than 160 Christian denominations across the U.S. and in 24 other countries.

Information regarding the recruitment and training of Stephen Ministers will be available during 2015. Bear one another’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. —Galatians 6:2 (Information from stephenministries.org)
During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

Acts 16:9

Impact Celebration is the way we begin this process in our congregation. We want you to know missionaries, know their families, and know their work. We want you to pray for and begin to develop relationships with these missionaries. This is at the very foundation of God’s Church; it is part of the foundation of our church.

Our 2015 Global Impact Celebration will be Wednesday, February 11- Sunday, February 15, 2015. We hope you will block some time on your calendar now for this wonderful event! Much like the Macedonian speaking to Paul, Who among us will stand and who will we stand by? We will begin to send more information out over the next few weeks and we look forward to seeing you at one or more of the many events we have planned for that week.

Director of Global Outreach & Facilities

The fall semester of school has come to an end, and with it, the end of the fall semester of programming for our high school and middle school students. The Lord has been so faithful to us and our ministry this first semester, and has caused us to marvel at the growth in numbers of students involved in our ministry, and the spiritual growth that our students are experiencing. This fall has presented many hardships and struggles, but out of that has come much joy and comfort in our God who loves us and “works things together for the good of those who love Him and are called according to His purposes” (Romans 8:28). We’ve had students begin to ask questions concerning the truth of who Jesus is and how we perceive that change in some growth even more in their knowledge and understanding of the depth of Christ’s love for us (Ephesians 3:14-19), and we’ve even been blessed enough to see students come to know Christ for the first time because of how God has worked through our ministry. It has been all of the youth staff’s utmost joy to see God work through our ministries to transform the hearts of students.

As we enter into the month of January, we pray for God to do immeasurably more than all we could ask or imagine and allow us to see more marvelous works of His. We are incredibly excited to start programming for the spring semester in January, and we believe that this semester will be even more fun and life transforming than last semester! Our first youth group of the semester meets beginning Jan. 7 from 6:00-7:30 PM upstairs in Horton/Calahan. This youth group will be a huge kickoff to start the spring semester which we hope is high energy and a ton of fun. You will not want to miss it. We’ll continue doing normal youth Wednesday nights throughout the month of January, and we hope to carry the momentum from fall semester over to spring. Our small groups begin meeting again on January 11th, and if your student is not in a small group contact Christy Copeland at Christy@fumct.org. Small groups are invaluable to our ministry and to our students and provide a smaller group of peers and a couple of adults to do life with and share in life’s joys and hardships. We are so excited for the next semester and are so grateful for the students we minister to and the volunteers that help us keep this ministry running. We are looking forward to January will be a great month, and we hope that you will join us in having a blast and growing students into Disciples of Christ!
