

Bio

Shelley's background as a pianist, flutist and vocalist and as a first call studio singer in Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Dallas and Los Angeles have made her one of the most experienced and versatile singers in the Midwest. As a professional singer, Shelley has worked for music artists such as Johnny Mathis, Dolly Parton, Donna Summer, Sandi Patty, Ray Boltz and Bill Gaither both in the recording studio and in concert. She has recorded commercials for Coca-Cola, McDonald's, Fazoli's and many others.

As a vocal coach, she spends much of her time coaching and training other artists. One of which is her daughter, Krystal Harris Peterson, whose voice can be heard on the movie soundtracks for Princess Diaries, Legally Blonde, Disney's Country Bears, and others.

As a clinician and teacher, Shelley teaches and trains worship leaders, singers, musicians and choirs, taking them to the next level in their technical skills as well as challenging them to live a daily lifestyle of worship to the Lord.

As a concert artist, she performs in a number of different settings across the nation and abroad.

As a worship artist, Shelley performs and/or leads worship concerts, worship encounters and prayer/worship gatherings alone, or with her band.

"Shelley Harris sung on numerous sessions that I've produced, both as featured soloist and as background singer. She is a superb singer with excellent range, pitch and ability to blend. As a soloist, she can sing "straight" (MOR) or soulfully. Perhaps most important, she's extremely smart as a studio singer; she has what I call studio savvy, which makes her a pleasure to work with. She reads well, has perfect pitch and takes direction very well. I've worked with great singers in Chicago, New York, L.A., Dallas and Nashville. Shelley is among the best."

"I thank God for the day that I was introduced to Shelley Harris. She has all the obvious tools you want in a worship leader: extraordinary, polished musicianship, a voice that won't quit, a rich experience in the industry without being jaded by it. This makes her equally at home on a concert stage as on a worship platform. She is a born entertainer and blesses those who listen to her sing one song or an entire set. But additionally, she brings a heart that is open to God in the moment. She has an ear for the Spirit and a burning desire to help others join their voices with His in meaningful worship."

Shelley Harris' Vocal Training Seminar was a real boost to our worship team. Shelley covers the basics of vocal technique in a manner that is easy for the untrained vocalist to grasp. Participants thought it well worth their time and are now asking for a second workshop."

"We have had the privilege of being ushered into the very "Throne Room of God" by the Sweet Power Worship Band. Their name is quite indicative of their purpose. They present themselves with the love and sweetness of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Ghost, and true worship that is only given to God, our Almighty Father...."

"I am writing this letter to affirm my confidence in your ministry and your relationship with Jesus. I have worked with you many times and known you for over 20 years....I love your sense of humor, your worshipping heart and your desire to know and follow the Lord.... For many years of worship leading, singing in concerts and studio work, you have demonstrated a skill and excellence in your music. But much more important than that, you, yourself, know how to worship and you know how to bring others with you into the Throne Room....you also are able to teach on worship and other spiritual topics. I certainly recommend your ministry to other churches."
