Dear Family:

Now what happens?

Ever since I announced my retirement, people have been asking, "Now what happens, Pastor Steve?" I must admit it has been a long time since Nancy and I came to GVBC and the GVBC Constitution, which contains the process of calling a new Senior Pastor, has also changed. I thought I would answer some questions about the process so you might be at peace about all that will be taking place.

The first step is choosing who will be selected to serve on the Pastoral Search Committee (PSC). There will be 7 members on the PSC – 4 are named because of the positions they currently serve (the Moderator of the Board of Deacons, one member of the Board of Deacons, one Pastoral Relations Committee representative, and one Personnel Committee representative), plus 3 GVBC members. These 3 GVBC members will be selected by the Nominating Committee, which the church membership will then vote on at a Special Business meeting.

This process will take a while because the Nominating Committee will spend time praying and seeking the Holy Spirit's direction before anyone is asked to be on the PSC. Please pray for them: Jim Kawashima, Perry Ishibashi, Frank Nakamura, Carol Allen, Ashley Donald, and Lillian Higashi.

I personally have felt that God has been preparing GVBC for this transition. For the first time, we have been fully staffed since last August. The Lord also provided two former Moderators to serve on our current Board. So there is a lot of leadership experience along with younger members on the Board of Deacons. I believe it is the right time for this change.

At the same time, it is not easy to step down and do what God wants next. I will write and share about that later. But be assured, this is God's timing, and He is the One who is faithful and will bring new leadership to GVBC, "in His time".

His child,

Steve

FROM HER HEART

PROFILE OF KATE BUN

"The BEST and most beautiful things in the world cannot be touched, but are felt with the heart." — Helen Keller

KATE BUN cares deeply about her students. In addition to being called Ms. Bun, a few students refer to her as Mom. Kate will go as far as what she calls nagging to get a student to complete an assignment or turn in homework. She is also a good listening-ear when a student seeks her out to talk about family drama (i.e., unsettling personal issues at home).

ECONOMICALLY CHALLENGED AREA

Teaching biology in an economically challenged area at Long Beach Polytechnic High School (LB Poly), Kate wants her students to focus on learning and have the opportunity of going to college if they so desire.

During the last school year, Kate's most difficult class gave her many challenges, but she never gave up. Many returned this school year to visit her because they realized all the extra effort and care she put into their education.

HOW CAN ONE BE JOYFUL

While Kate was a student at LB Poly, there was a sizeable Cambodian population. She related well with the students — being Cambodian herself. She achieved the American dream of being the first in her family to graduate from college and get a professional job. In 2002, she received her B.S. in Biology and a Secondary Teaching Credential and Masters in Teaching from USC in 2008. During college, she tutored and discovered she enjoyed helping students.

During her first year of teaching biology at North High School (NHS), she came to know the Lord. Through severe trials and difficulties of teaching, she became introspective. "How can one be joyful when all these negative things happen?" she pondered. A fellow biology teacher, David Aoki, befriended and witnessed to her. At the end of her first year of teaching in June 2009, she received the Lord with David's help. It was a joy-filled moment.

GROWING STEADILY IN THE LORD

David suggested Kate attend GVBC and strongly recommended Pastor Ron Matsuda's "Beginning Christianity" class where she could receive strong biblical teaching. She grew steadily in the Lord as she attended worship services, Pastor Ron's classes (including one session of "Practicing God's Presence"), and the GVBC classes. Kate also joined a small women's Community Group (of 9-10 women) led by Florence Hayashi. She feels close to these women who love and support her unconditionally. Through her Community Group, she began creating her own greeting cards to give in appreciation. The artistically designed cards have been a hit with her Community Group as well as other people who are elated to be recipients.

SUPPORT AND PRAYERS

Kate's Community Group continually upholds her in prayer in her job as a teacher. After her position at NHS was eliminated, she took a job at a charter school in Costa Mesa. It was difficult because the science classes she taught were for middle school students. Having had little experience with middle school students, she felt her job was daunting. The Lord was faithful and helped her get through this period. Later, she was able to transfer to LB Poly where she currently works. Upon early arrival at school every morning, she takes time to do daily devotions and spend quiet time in prayer with the Lord.

At GVBC Kate is an active member of our Body. In addition to the Women's Community Group, she is on the church Board of Deacons as a Member-at-large. Also, she enjoys dancing with the Hula Ministry. This past August, she was part of the six-member GVBC missions team who ministered at Oasis Chapel Church in Rifu, Japan.

BORN IN A REFUGE CAMP

A native of Asia, Kate was born in the Thailand Refugee Camp during the Khmer Rouge War. Kate's parents escaped from Cambodia and lived in the Philippines for one year before immigrating to the U.S. The Buns settled in Oklahoma where Kate's uncle had lived. They lived there for one year before moving to Southern California. Initially, they lived in Fontana, but later moved to Long Beach. In addition to Kate's parents and herself, the family also includes her five younger siblings.

PLAN FOR WELFARE NOT FOR CALAMITY

One of Kate's favorite Bible verses, Jeremiah 29:11 reminds her that God may place her in situations where she needs to rely on others:

"For I know the plans that I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope.

Being the oldest child in her family, Kate took charge of her siblings and as a teacher was also in charge. When she went to the Oasis Chapel in Rifu, Japan, the tables were turned. Since she did not know Japanese, she relied on her teammates (those who were fluent in Japanese and English) for communication with the Oasis Chapel members. As an adult, this was the first extended period in which Kate had to rely on others for help. Although it felt uncomfortable in the beginning, she grew to accept it, trusting this was part of the Lord's plan. As a result of her experiences, she became more co-dependent and closer with fellow team members.

(L) Kate Bun with Saki from the Oasis Chapel Rifu, Japan Mission Trip

In retrospect, Kate realized God used the Japan mission trip not only for ministry, but as a personal growing experience for her. At the end of the Japan mission trip, she was extremely touched when a woman from Oasis Chapel thanked her for being willing to come and minister, despite not knowing any Japanese. Her acts of kindness touched the heart of this woman. Back home, Kate touches the hearts of many around her through her acts of kindness.

KEN & DIANE KUDO, OVERSEAS CRUSADE, SAO PAULO, BRAZIL

"Newton has come to Christ and has led several people to Christ, but I want more than good/above average for him; I'd like him to be the very best in evangelism and discipleship as preparation for whatever God has in store for him. So, I spend time weekly with him to provide input, feedback, and advice on his life and ministry," writes Ken. Newton is pictured with Ken in the Kudo's January/February newsletter. Who is Newton? Fifteen years ago, Newton was a private tutor to high school students. The subjects Newton covered were as varied as Portuguese to math and science. He was an excellent tutor and highly sought after. After a time, Newton felt God directing him to start a school for these students whose goal was to attend elite Brazilian universities. God answered Newton's prayer and guided him to start the college-prep Alliance School (AS). The standards at AS are high as the staff are graduates of University of Sao Paulo (the most respected university in Brazil). Students from all over Brazil attend AS. which has a rigorous academic curriculum. With so many applicants, it is hard to get admitted to AS. Some past graduates have been admitted to the best medical school in Brazil. In speaking of AS, Newton gives credit to the Lord proclaiming AS represents the Lord Jesus in its code of conduct and ethical behavior. Newton's mother recently went home to the Lord. At the funeral service, Newton shared the Gospel through his and his mother's personal testimonies. Ken presided over the service, giving him the rare opportunity to preach about Christ to over 80 unchurched people. For most of those 80, it was the first time they heard the Gospel. Praise the Lord!

February 12-13, 2016

Calling all couples – engaged, newly married, or married for 50 years! Join us for GVBC's "Celebrating ONE" Marriage Conference on Valentine's Day weekend, February 12-13. God's design for marriage was that husband and wife would be "one flesh." But when our self-centeredness gets in the way, we don't function as one, and we certainly aren't celebrating. But with the example and help of Jesus Christ, we are able to get back to "Celebrating ONE" as he intended!

TIME: Friday, 2/12 from 7-9pm and Saturday, 2/13 from 8:30am – 2:30pm

2015 OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SUMMARY BY LINDA HAYASHI

Operation Christmas Child was again a great success as GVBC contributed a total of 568 boxes! We received word of our shoeboxes being sent to Peru and the Philippines. Many children in these two countries have been blessed with the useful gifts and supplies as well as the opportunity to hear the Gospel message in their own language. The children will also be given an invitation to participate in a local discipleship program called "The Greatest Journey."

Special thanks to all who participated in this church-wide project which included the English and the Nichigo congregations, youth and children.

GVBC youth prepared 94 boxes and around 32 students and leaders went to the processing plant to volunteer on November 28. These volunteers inspected the shoeboxes and then prepared them for shipping overseas.

Many thanks to all who helped share God's love through Operation Christmas Child. Thank you for your faithfulness in helping to spread the Gospel around the world through these special Christmas gifts.
