

Researchers estimate between 21 - 46 million women, men, and children in every country are forced to work against their will in industries such as:

Domestic labor

Construction

Agriculture

Restaurants

Commercial sex

Join us on
September 24 for FREEDOM  SUNDAY

a movement of hope and unity, declaring that we are broken, but not powerless.

On Freedom Sunday, we address the tragedy of human trafficking but we respond with worship, joy, hope and action.

We do this by uniting with others and letting the worship form and inform our response. Partnering with God, we are agents of hope and healing.

OUR PROJECTS FOR 2017

The past 6 years of Freedom Sunday offerings have raised at least $800,000 for life-changing projects, helping people such as:

- ▶ At-risk children living at International Child Care Ministries hostels in Thailand and the Philippines
- ▶ Survivors living at Eden's Glory, a restoration home in Illinois
- ▶ Migrants in Taiwan and prostituted women in Athens, Greece; and more.

This year, your offering will help support these three projects:

FOSTER CARE IN SEATTLE

70% of children who are trafficked in Seattle were in the foster care system at some point.

Our team supports foster parents and social workers, and meets the basic needs of foster children and helps build their self-esteem and spirituality while connecting them to peers and adult mentors by hosting meaningful events.

ICCM + RESETAVEK FREEDOM HAITI

300,000+ children in Haiti work as unpaid domestic servants in a culturally acceptable system of slavery known as "restavek".

International Child Care Ministries and Restavek Freedom (RF) are training teachers, pastors, church members and parents in a 12-week course that will empower 53 ICCM schools and their partner churches to take a stand against child slavery.

SET FREE IN THE PHILIPPINES

Thousands of children are sexually exploited online in the Philippines each year, sometimes by their families.

Our team in the Philippines is training Free Methodist pastors, mobilizing churches, and engaging youth to be informed, equipped, and compassionate responders to this form of human trafficking.

A portion of funds raised will also go to the Set Free Movement for oversight.
