

Debbie Clute, Secretary
Assistant Director, GBT Children's Academy
Omaha, NE

Debbie received her high school diploma from Omaha North High School, receiving local, state and national recognition for her work in Art and Journalism. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) in 2000 with a B.A. in Speech Communication. In 2002, she received her Cosmetology License from Capitol School of Hairstyling. Debbie is pursuing her Masters of Communication at UNO. As Senior Client Services Representative at Central States Indemnity, she worked over ten years in financial services account management and business communications. After volunteering at the GBT Children's Academy over four years, she joined the Academy as Assistant Director in November 2010. She is a lifelong member of the GBT Academy of the Arts and serves in the capacity of Administrative Assistant. She has participated in the Academy as an actor, narrator, dancer, writer and artist.