WEEK 2: SEVEN REALITIES OF EXPERIENCING GOD

God is at work reconciling the world to Himself, and as He carries out His mission, He seeks to move people into the flow of His activity. He begins by pursuing a love relationship with you. He then invites you to become involved with Him in His work. As He relates to you, He discloses Himself, His purposes, and His ways. If you want to experience God's mighty power at work in and through you, you must walk by faith, make major adjustments and obey whatever God tells you to do.

Read Exodus 2:23-25

The experience of Moses being called by God beautifully portrays how God works in a person's life. We see in this passage that when God was about to deliver the children of Israel, His primary concern was His will for Israel, not His will for Moses.

Read Exodus 3:1-10

Who initiated the relationship between God and Moses?
In these verses we see that God invites Moses' to become intimately involved with	n Him	in carrying out His plan and purpose. It was Moses part to simply submit to it and say	/

The fellowship between God and Moses was based on love and thus God was able to daily fulfill His purposes through Moses. You can see that close fellowship in Exodus 33:10-17 and Numbers 12:6-8. God came and talked to Moses about His will. God will reveal His purposes to you so you can be involved in His work.

 a. Have you heard God speak to you recently? b. If so, what did He say? 	·
c. What have you done in response?

Read Hebrews 11:24-29 and meditate on these questions.

Moses' faith is described as a model of self sacrifice and trust in Almighty God. What was special about Moses that caused God to choose him? If God works through ordinary people like us, how can I be ready to obey? How will you respond when God asks you to do something extraordinary? How will you come to know God more personally as a result of obeying His voice?
