

Job Description

Digital Learning and Leadership Senior Trainer

Global Kids Digital Learning and Leadership Program (DLL) has developed and pioneered cutting-edge practices that integrate digital media, global awareness, and youth leadership for underserved middle and high school students for over 15 years. In addition to youth-facing work, DLL works to build capacity of other youth-serving educators and institutions, and contribute to the field of digital media and learning through speaking engagements and special trainings.

Global Kids is seeking a talented and enthusiastic individual to run youth programs using digital media. The Senior Digital Learning and Leadership Trainer will work collaboratively with other staff in order to:

- Develop and facilitate interactive, experiential workshops using digital media and maker space tools for in-school and afterschool programs for middle school and/or high school youth
- Write curricula and lesson plans that incorporate digital media and global issues
- Conduct professional development trainings for educators
- Coach less experienced staff
- Collaboratively brainstorm ideas for new digital media projects that embrace Global Kids mission
- Stay up to date on digital media and learning news and research
- Coordinate and manage multiple projects, both independently and on a team
- Contribute writing and ideas to grant proposals and reports
- Represent GK through blog posts, speaking engagements, and other outreach
- Perform other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in a related field, e.g. education, instructional technology, game design, etc.
- Master's preferred
- 3-4 years of related digital learning and media work experience with young people (coding, games-based learning, mobile app development, maker space technology, etc.)
- Strong facilitation, curriculum development and interpersonal skills
- Classroom management skills
- Short learning curve around new digital tools and applications
- Passion for global issues, social activism and youth empowerment
- Strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and proven ability to prioritize tasks
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment

Salary / Benefits:

Low to mid 40's, depending on experience. Good benefits and possibilities for travel.

We are actively seeking candidates of diverse backgrounds.
