

MEDIA ADVISORY
August 1, 2011

NYC High School Students' Plans for the Summer: Understand the World

Global Kids Workshop Held at Council on Foreign Relations; Topics Include the Politics of Oil and War in Afghanistans

NEW YORK CITY—A group of 25 New York City high school students are spending a part of their summer learning first-hand about international issues from the movers and shakers who shape opinions. They are participating in the Global Kids program, “U.S. In the World: International Law and Foreign Policy,” being held in conjunction with the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR).

Guest speakers include experts from the Environmental Defense Fund, the Lawyers’ Committee on Nuclear Policy, Episcopal Relief and Development, Independent Diplomat and CFR leaders. The students also toured the UN.

WHAT: “U.S. In the World: International Law and Foreign Policy”
Global Kids in conjunction with the Council on Foreign Relations

WHO: Global Kids, the premier non-profit educational organization for global learning and youth development, works to ensure that urban youth have the knowledge, skills, experiences and values they need to succeed in school, participate effectively in the democratic process, and achieve leadership in their communities and on the global stage.

www.globalkids.org

WHERE: Council on Foreign Relations
58 E. 68th St., New York City

WHEN: Thurs., July 28–Fri. Aug. 5

MEDIA CONTACT:
Adam Shapiro
Adam.Shapiro@adampr.tv
202-427-3603

###