The staff of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church and Academy warmly invite all school families who do not have a home church to please join us during Advent and to celebrate the birth of our Savior on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Rules for social distancing and wearing of masks are adhered to for your safety.

Ms. Pat is pictured here preparing the infants for an enjoyable walk on a beautiful, cool but sunny December day!

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas!

The 3K students led by Mrs. Harbar and Mrs. Zapata are pictured here "seeing themselves" in the Christmas artwork located on the bulletin board in the church hallway. The children enjoyed discovering the different decorations and recognizing friends and siblings!

Mrs. Rossano's 4K students also enjoyed walking over to the church and discovering their ornamental pictures on the Christmas bulletin board. The children saw that their pictures made very precious tree ornaments! Pictured to the right is a 4K student who is ready to spread Christmas cheer with his very merry holiday clothing!
