

Evangelism Styles Questionnaire:

Scoring Totals: 3 - Very much 2 – Somewhat 1 - Very Little 0 - Not at all
1. In conversations, I like to approach topics directly, without much small talk or beating around the bush.
2. I have a hard time getting out of bookstores or libraries without getting a bunch of books that will help me better understand issues being debated in society.
3. I often tell stories about my personal experiences in order to illustrate a point I am trying to make.
4. I am a "people person" who places a high value on friendship.
5. I enjoy including or adding new people to activities I am involved in.
6. I see needs in people's lives that others often overlook.
7. I do not shy away from putting a person on the spot when it seems necessary.
8. I tend to be analytical.
9. I often identify with others by using phrases like "I used to think that too" or "I once felt the way you do."
10. Other people have commented about my ability for developing new friendships.
11. To be honest, even if I knew the answers, I am more comfortable having someone "better qualified" explain Christianity to my friends.
12. I find fulfillment in helping others often in behind-the-scenes ways.
13. I do not have a problem confronting my friends with the truth even if it risks hurting the relationship.
14. In conversations, I naturally focus on the questions that are holding up a person's spiritual progress.
15. When I tell people of how I came to Christ, I have found that they have been interested in hearing it.
16. I would rather delve into personal life issues than abstract theological ideas.
17. If I knew of a high quality outreach event that my friends would enjoy, I would make a big effort to bring them.
18. I prefer to show love through my actions more than my words.

19. I believe	that real love ofter	n means telling some	one then truth, eve	n when it hurts.
20. Leniov d	iscussions and deb	ates on difficult ques	stions.
		ates on annount ques	ACTO TO
21. I intentio	onally share my mis	takes with others wh	nen it will help them	relate to the sol	utions I have found.
22. I prefer g	etting involved in di	scussions concerning	a person's life before	e dealing with the	details of their beliefs.
	watch for spiritual eeker services).	ly strategic events to	bring people to (su	ch as Christian cc	oncerts, outreach
	eople are spiritually nes make them mo	closed, I have found re receptive.	I that my quiet dem	onstrations of Ch	ristian love
25. A motto	that would fit me is	s: "Make a difference	e or a mess, but do s	omething."
26. I often ge	et frustrated with p	eople when they us	e weak arguments o	r poor logic.
27. People seem interested in hearing stories about things that have happened in my life.
28. I enjoy lo	ong talks with friend	ds.
		atch between the ne I enjoy or benefit fro		my friends and t	he various events,
30. I feel more discussion		cally assisting a person	in the name of Christ	than getting invo	lved religious
31. I sometin	mes get in trouble f	or lacking gentlenes	s and sensitivity in tl	he way I interact	with others.
32. I like to g	et at the underlyin	g reasons for opinio	ns that people hold.
33. I am still	amazed at how Go	d brought me to fait	h in Him and I am m	otivated to tell p	eople about it.
34. People g	enerally consider n	ne to be an interactiv	ve, sensitive, and car	ring kind of perso	on.
35. A highlig	ht of my week wou	ıld be to take a guest	with me to an appr	opriate church e	vent.
36. I tend to	be more practical	and action-oriented	than philosophical a	nd idea-oriented	l.
Confrontational	Intellectual	Testimonial	Interpersonal	Invitational	Serving
#1	#2	#3	#4	#5	#6
#7	#8	#9	#10	#11	#12
#13	#14	#15	#16	#17	#18
#19	#20	#21	#22	#23	#24
#25	#26	#27	#28	#29	#30

#31_

#32__

#33

#34 _

#35_

#36

Evangelism Styles Descriptions

Confrontational Style

Characteristics of people with this style might be that they are confident, assertive, and direct. They also may not like small talk. When their style is developed, they are not afraid to approach spiritual matters directly. This is the person who, if talking to someone in a near-miss accident, would be comfortable asking "would you have been ready to die in that accident?"

Cautions

Here is a caution for those of you with the Confrontational Style. Be sure to use tact when confronting people with truth to keep them from becoming unnecessarily offended.

Intellectual Style

Characteristics of people with this style might be that they are inquisitive, analytical, and logical. They might like to debate, and they enjoy working with ideas. They tend to ask questions like "What do-you think?" "Why?" or "How do you know?"

Cautions

A couple of cautions for those of you with this style: Do not substitute giving answers for giving the- Gospel message, and be careful of becoming argumentative.

Testimonial Style

Some characteristics include being a clear communicator, story teller, and good listener. They also are able to relate their experience well to others.

Cautions

Beware of talking about yourself but not relating your experience to the other person's life. You first need to listen to them, to be able to connect your story to their situation.

Interpersonal Style

Characteristics of this style are a warm personality, conversational, friendship oriented, tending to focus on people and their needs more than on ideas.

Cautions

If you have this style you will need to avoid valuing friend-ship over truth-telling. Presenting the Gospel often means challenging a person's whole direction in life, and that can mean causing friction in your relationship.

Invitational Style

Characteristics of people with this style are that they are hospitable, relational, and persuasive. They enjoy meeting new people and are often seen with new friends.

Cautions

People with the Invitational Style need to be careful not to always let others do the talking for them. As we are told in 1 Peter 3:15, each of us needs to:

"Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have"

Serving Style

Generally people with this style are others-centred, humble, and patient. They see needs and find joy in providing for those needs. They are often less vocal.

Cautions

Just as words are no substitute for actions, actions are no substitute for words. In Romans 10: 14, it is clear that we must verbally tell people about Christ. This can be done in small ways as you point to Him as the central motivation for your acts of service.

Also, do not underestimate the value of your service. It is your style that will reach many of the most negative and hardened people. Acts of loving service are hard to resist and difficult to argue with.

Source: Becoming a Contagious Christian course, Willowcreek Association. Further information on styles can be found in Becoming a Contagious Christian, by Bill Hybels.

Please email your results through to Belinda at enquiry@gccf.com.au along with your name.