“How Are They Going to Trust in Jesus?”
(Part 22 of a Series in Romans, “The Righteousness of God!”)
Romans 10:14-21

In the first 13 verses of Romans 10, we saw that many in Israel (as well as many others today!) had - and still have - a zeal for religion, but no real relationship with Jesus Christ. Zeal for religion cannot and will not enable a person to get to Heaven. Only faith in Jesus Christ will do that. In our passage today, we'll learn how a person is able to move from “zeal for religion” to “relationship with God through Jesus Christ.”

Be Prepared

Marriage is a wonderful gift from God, through which He enriches our lives, blesses us with children, guards us against temptation, and presents a model to the world of how Jesus Christ loves His church (Ephesians 5:25). Sin, Satan, and the world conspire daily to oppose God and tarnish this model. Therefore, be wise. Recognize both the opportunities and the dangers that lie ahead. Prepare yourself today to respond to the inevitable conflicts in a biblically faithful manner.

As you and your spouse learn how to be peacemakers, you will not only strengthen your marriage, but also turn it into a place where God is glorified, others are served, and both of you are steadily being conformed to the image of the great Peacemaker, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ken Sande, PEACEMAKING FOR FAMILIES

Character

We talk of character and integrity, and yet perhaps we need to define them. We want our children to have these qualities, but just what does this mean? Character is the total of who we genuinely are inside. It is all that we think..., what we truthfully stand for, which is expressed in our pattern of behavior. Integrity is a part of our character and is best known by three behaviors:

- Telling the truth
- Keeping one's promises
- Taking responsibility for one's behavior

Greatest Resource

Seasoned citizens are among the greatest resources we have today. No matter what your age, there is always someone who has lived longer and been through more.

Many people today think that history began the day they were born. They're convinced that the times we live in are the worst ever—that the problems we face have never been dealt with before. This is a limited perspective.

Talking to people who lived through markedly different times can really help us put our values in order and our needs in perspective.

BOTTOM LINE

Build Strong Kids

Pause with your children before they begin their homework some evening, or take five minutes to restore tranquility when it feels like chaos is enveloping your home.

Beauty, a heavenly part of our everyday world, nurtures the human soul. Find out what is beautiful to each of your children. One child picks from the flower garden according to how the flower smells, while another chooses with an eye for color. Children can find beauty everywhere: in color, movement, form, music, words, and rituals.

Children often connect with spirit through their senses. Smell, for instance, has the power to evoke powerful emotions and memories from deep within our souls. Try going on a sniffing walk. Outside, how does the air smell? Find a flower, a newly mowed lawn, a fire burning. Does your child like the smells?

Touch is another gateway to your children's inner magic, their spirit. Ask how a blanket feels. Rediscover the messy joy of mud pies. Don't forget to touch your children: Hug them, kiss them, and cuddle them. Loving touch reaches the soul. Don't forget this healing essence in your own life, either.

Marsha Walch, HOW TO MAKE FAMILY MAGIC

Memory Building

We can become so worried about the future—paying bills, making friends, finding a new home—that we miss the joy of this moment. This was an especially tough area for me to deal with because I'd always had my security blankets—friends, family, familiar environment—wrapped tightly around me.

I discovered I had a heart for adventure. That realization quickly translated into having fun with my young children, including garbage-bag tobogganing near their grandparents' home. I even began keeping a box of oversized bags in the trunk for just such impromptu romps.

Even a walk in the woods became an adventure. And looking back now, we recognize that our favorite memories...are in the unplanned events—the trips to the cider mills or free art fairs—not the trips we over planned for weeks.

WE WELCOME YOU!

There are many good reasons for coming to church, but we hope that your joining us this morning includes the best reason: to thank and worship God for His amazing love revealed in the birth, life, and ministry, the suffering and death, and the wondrous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! This is what our church is all about! If you are visiting today, please fill out a guest card and bring it to our Welcome Center in the foyer and receive a free gift. Thank you ... and visit us again!

The mission of our church is to prayerfully prepare believers for worshiping God, serving Christ, loving one another, and reaching out to others!

2013 YEAR VERSE

“Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.”

- Hebrews 10:24

MEMORIAL DAY - also known as “Decoration Day” - was set apart to honor men and women who died while in military service to the United States. It was first widely observed on May 30, 1868, when flowers were placed on the graves of the Union and Confederate soldiers. It is with thanks to the Lord that we gratefully remember those who have served in the past and who are currently serving in our Armed Forces!

WE ARE THRILLED TO ANNOUNCE that Steve Yoder has accepted a call from the Board of Elders to be our next Minister of Youth, on a part-time basis, beginning June 3! Please pray for Steve as he begins in this very important ministry.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITY: Teacher for our Children’s Church (ages 1st - 4th grades). This is on a rotating basis (you would teach 1 month and be off for 2 months). If you are interested in this, please contact Linda Luginbuhl. Thank you!

PARENTS, PLEASE NOTE: Beginning June 9, children will no longer be allowed to bring food or drink into their Sunday School class. Sunday School for all ages begins at 9 AM.

We will be having a garage sale here at the church on June 1 to raise money to buy some new equipment for the church playground. If you can help with this sale on Friday evening, May 31 or Sat., June 1, please let Linda Luginbuhl know as soon as possible. Also, be putting aside items you would like to donate for this sale. Items can be dropped off at the church on Friday, May 31, from 6 PM - 9 PM. Thanks!

Our Faith Bible Institute satellite school is offering a summer course entitled, "The Doctrine of Prophecy" on four Tuesdays in a row beginning July 9 (6:30 PM - 9:30 PM). CAMP IS RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER! Summer camp at Broken Arrow Bible Ranch! Eight weeks to choose from, beginning June 10! Bright yellow information/registration forms are at the Welcome Desk. Why not go to camp this Summer? You'll be glad you did!

This Week in Church History...

On May 28, 1841, Edwin Moody, father of Dwight L. Moody, died, leaving his wife Betsy Holton Moody to raise seven boys and two girls alone. Dwight Lyman was only four year old (b. 1837) at the time of his father's death, but he grew up to become the most successful American evangelist of his generation.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...
