WE WELCOME YOU!

There are many good reasons for coming to church, but we hope that your joining us this morning includes the best reason: to thank and worship God for His amazing love revealed in the birth, life, and ministry, the suffering and death, and the wondrous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! This is what our church is all about! If you are visiting today, please fill out a guest card and bring it to our Welcome Center in the foyer and receive a free gift. Thank you ... and visit us again!

The mission of our church is to prayerfully prepare believers for worshiping God, serving Christ, loving one another, and reaching out to others!

This Week in Church History...

On May 20, 1937, Jesse I. Overholtzer chartered Child Evangelism Fellowship, Inc., in Chicago, Illinois. This interdenominational mission agency of Baptist tradition is the outgrowth of evangelistic work. Overholtzer began with children in California as far back as 1916. Today, C.E.F. headquarters is located in Warrenton, Missouri. The organization works in radio and TV broadcasting, evangelism, literature production and distribution, and Bible correspondence courses in 187 countries around the world.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK...

"I would rather win souls than be the greatest king or emperor on earth, I would rather win souls than be the greatest general that ever commanded an army ... My one ambition in life is to win as many as possible. Oh, it is the only thing worth doing, to save souls; and men and women, we can all do it."

~ R. A. Torrey

PRAISE & PETITION

“O sing to the Lord a new song, for He has done wonderful things; His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him.”

~ Psalm 98:1

Praise the Lord for:

1. The fact that our God is a wonderful God!
2. The suffering Jesus did in our place, to pay for our sins; eternal life and forgiveness of sins through Jesus, as we put our personal faith in Him!
3. The ministry of Sam & Becky Trommler in Phoenix.
4. The wonderful work of the Holy Spirit of God - for giving us the ministry of reconciliation and restoration!
5. Entrusting us with the Gospel, opportunities to share it!
6. A wonderful Work Day yesterday!

Petition the Lord for:

1. More of a desire to “make the most of our time” for the Lord Jesus.
2. Continued growth in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ. (1 Peter 3:18)
3. Our graduates, as they seek God’s will for after-graduation plans.
4. Charles & Mildred Schoolcraft (struggling with health issues); Mike Lengal (recuperating); Ray Alonzo (hip surgery June 16); EJ Charles (undergoing continued medical treatments)
5. Ricky Lee (Nellie Lee’s son) and Sean Begaye, in Afghanistan; Adam Sowers (Ft. Hood); Kyle Prendergast (Ophelia Krupica’s son), stationed (Air Force) in Germany.
6. Our President, military advisors, military men and women.

“Holy, Holy, Holy!”

(Part 1 of a Series, “Getting a Gimpse of a Holy God!”)

Isaiah 6:1-8

How would we change, what would we do differently, if we truly got a glimpse of our God and His holiness? What impact would getting that glimpse have on us? The prophet Isaiah was greatly impacted by getting a glimpse of God’s holiness and greatness!

Better LIFE!

Enriching Personal and Family Relationships an edition of Better Families

A New Household

Marriage requires that both the husband and the wife “leave their parents and “cleave” or be joined to their spouses.” A husband is no longer subject to the authority of his parents; a wife is no longer subject to her parents. A new household is established—a new family is formed—at the time of the wedding.

A number of conflicts in marriage arise because one or both spouses haven’t really “left” home. They never cut the ties that bind them to their parents. For a marriage to be successful both husband and wife need to leave mother and father and place each other in the role of “first and foremost” in their lives.

Darrell L. Hines, PRIORITIES IN MARRIAGE

Fabric of Our Life

Plan to initiate relationships with the new neighbors you are bound to have in the coming years. As we remain a mobile society, with one out of six households moving each year, view those new tenants as your mission field. Engage them in conversation about meaning, purpose and faith; invite them to share your church experience; offer to pray for them when difficulties arise.

In the ethnic and racial cauldron in which we find ourselves, strive to be a champion of peace and love by studying the other cultures living in your midst and understanding what makes them tick. By doing so, you will be able to appreciate people from different backgrounds, rather than having to compete with them for supremacy and resources.

George Barna, Mark Hatch, BOILING POINT

A Mother's Love

In her 1957 book, To Live Again, Catherine Marshall wrote: “The highest function of my mother love would be fulfilled when my love was strong enough to cut the apron strings and let my adult child move off into his own life. I would succeed as a mother only when I had so reared my child that he would no longer have need of me. Yet this is not tragedy; it is growth. This is no betrayal of love. This is love.”

Carol Kuykendall, LEARNING TO LET GO

Cultivate The Dream

Resolve to pursue the dream God put in your heart. This involves coming to the place where you declare, "Now is the time. This is the place. I am the person." Perhaps you've thought about your dream for years. At other times it was impossible for you to say yes to your dream. "Later" may not work either. Go for it now while the time is right, while the door is open before you.

God formed you so that He might fulfill you as you pursue this dream. Part of the missing element in your life has been the "walking out" of this plan. In a sense, this is the culmination of your life's direction. And it's a glorious beginning.

Not sure what dreams lie dormant in your heart? Ask God and keep your eyes open. What moves you? What are you glad you made time to do in your life so far? What do you consider "time well spent"? What have you done that may have eternal results? Answers to these questions will give you clues to your gifts, passions and dreams.

Steve and Janie Sjogren, 101 WAYS TO REINVEST YOUR LIFE

One Who Cares

When we honestly ask ourselves which person in our lives means the most to us we often find that it is those who, instead of giving much advice, solutions, or cures, have chosen rather to share our pain and touch our wounds with a gentle and tender hand. The friend who can be silent with us in a moment of despair or confusion, who can stay with us in an hour of grief and bereavement, who can tolerate not knowing, not curing, not healing and face with us the reality of our powerlessness, that is a friend who cares.

Henri Nouwen, MY FRIEND

Pardon My Offense

Time and anger are intertwined. The longer an offense goes unresolved, the longer we hold on to the anger and self-pity, the more deep-seated it becomes. Then the heart becomes a hotbed for a root of bitterness. Forgive quickly. Forgive as you are forgiven.
