WE WELCOME YOU!

There are many good reasons for coming to church, but we hope that your joining us this morning includes the best reason: to thank and worship God for His amazing love revealed in the birth, life, and ministry, the suffering and death, and the wondrous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ! This is what our church is all about! If you are visiting today, please fill out a guest card and bring it to our Welcome Center in the foyer and receive a free gift. Thank you ... and visit us again!

The mission of our church is to prayerfully prepare believers for worshipping God, serving Christ, loving one another, and reaching out to others!

2015 YEAR VERSE:

"In God is my salvation and my glory. The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God."

- Psalm 62:7

WE EXTEND A SPECIAL WELCOME today to Steve & Melissa Hubler and their three children, ministering with Church Resource Ministries (headquarters in Anaheim, CA)! We are looking forward to hearing what God is doing through the Hublers!

---

ARE YOU REGISTERED FOR CAMP YET? There are still three weeks to choose from at Broken Arrow Bible Ranch! "Junior Camp", (ages 8-12) week is this week; "Teen Camp" (ages 13-19) weeks are July 20 and July 27.

Bright yellow information/registration forms are on the Welcome Desk. Why not go to camp this Summer? You'll be glad you did!

Summer is a perfect time to give someone a gospel tract! Tracts are available for you at the Welcome Desk in the foyer.

---

A list of July birthdays and anniversaries of regular-attenders of Grace Bible is on the kitchen door. Please make (legible) corrections/additions right on the list. Thank you!

Saturday, August 8, 2015

5:30pm

(For all Ladies - College Age & Above)

This is a great opportunity to get to know ladies in the church in a casual homey atmosphere as well as a great time to see some different homes.

We meet at the church in the Gathering Room and then divide into groups to go to different houses for the different courses.

Sign up to be a hostess or bring food. This year's main dish is lasagna (meat & veggie). You can also sign up to bring an appetizer, salad & bread, or a dessert.

Contact a Deaconess (Alicia Yale, Angela O'Bourke, Beth Hess, Autumn Peralto, Sarah Piano, and Angela Silva) for more information.

Sign-up deadline is Sunday, August 2.

Single With A Purpose

There are those special people who are chosen and gifted with singleness. But not all those who are single today are chosen to remain that way. While at this venue of life, make it count. Invest in the lives of as many other people as possible. Spend time with elderly people who can share their wisdom. In return, run errands, do chores around the house or simply keep them company.

Spend time with young people and help guide and direct them. Spend time writing letters to your future spouse. Tell them how you wish they were there to share a sunset or laugh at a funny movie you watched. Tell them of your devoted love and commitment to them. And most of all tell them that you love them and are praying for them, wherever they are. Keep the letters in a special container, and then one day share them with your new spouse on your honeymoon.

Living Triumphantly Every Day

Living victoriously doesn't mean that we won't get sick, go broke, or experience severe hardship. It doesn't mean that everything will always go the way we think it ought to go. Nor does it mean we'll always have dry eyes and smiles on our faces. It does mean, though, that in the midst of the challenges of life, we will be soldiers who know and walk in the aura of victory. We may lose a few battles, but we will always win the war, because we are more than conquerors through him who loves us. Living victoriously means that we will walk tall, unafraid, unashamed, and undaunted by hardship-not in unrealistic denial but in the truth that we're always victorious in Jesus Christ-even if we're bleeding!

Dr. Bob Moorehead, A PASSION FOR VICTORY

Beyond Carefulness

In the beginning of His ministry, Jesus was continually bumping into fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists and asking them to follow Him. Astonishingly, these men abandoned their careers, their families, and their future to follow Jesus. All because this Jesus said, "Follow Me." Why? Why would these men give up all they knew to follow Jesus into what they didn't know? Because somehow these men knew that life with Jesus is the life they had been seeking unsuccessfully in the confines of safety and caution. They knew life's greatest adventure was waiting just beyond the limits of carefulness. They knew where the music was coming from.
